AN ACT to amend the public officers law, in relation to enacting the "state taxpayer oversight and protection (STOP) act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "state taxpayer oversight and protection (STOP) act".

- § 2. Paragraphs (a) and (b) of subdivision 2 of section 17 of the public officers law, paragraph (a) as amended by chapter 768 of the laws of 1985 and paragraph (b) as added by chapter 466 of the laws of 1978, are amended to read as follows:
- 7 (a) Upon compliance by the employee with the provisions of subdivision four of this section, the state shall provide for the defense of the employee in any civil action or proceeding in any state or federal court 10 arising out of any alleged act or omission which occurred or is alleged 11 in the complaint to have occurred while the employee was acting within the scope of [his] their public employment or duties; or which is 12 13 brought to enforce a provision of section nineteen hundred eighty-one or 14 nineteen hundred eighty-three of title forty-two of the United States 15 code and the act or omission underlying the action occurred or is alleged in the complaint to have occurred while the employee was acting 16 within the scope of [his] their public employment or duties. This duty 17 to provide for a defense shall not arise where such civil action or 18 19 proceeding is brought by or on behalf of the state. No attorneys' fees 20 or expenses shall be paid if incurred on behalf of an employee in any action brought by the employee against the state. 21
- 22 (b) Subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph (a) of this 23 subdivision, the employee shall be entitled to be represented by the attorney general, provided, however, that the employee shall be entitled to representation by private counsel of [his] their choice in any civil judicial proceeding whenever the attorney general determines based upon [his] their investigation and review of the facts and circumstances of 5 the case that representation by the attorney general would be inappropriate, or whenever a court of competent jurisdiction, upon appropriate 7 motion or by a special proceeding, determines that a conflict of interest exists and that the employee is entitled to be represented by private counsel of  $[\frac{his}{l}]$  their choice. The attorney general shall notify 9 10 the employee in writing of such determination that the employee is enti-11 tled to be represented by private counsel. The attorney general may 12 require, as a condition to payment of the fees and expenses of such representation, that appropriate groups of such employees be represented 13 14 by the same counsel. If the employee or group of employees is entitled 15 to representation by private counsel under the provisions of this 16 section, the attorney general shall so certify to the comptroller. 17 Reasonable attorneys' fees and litigation expenses shall be paid by the 18 state to such private counsel from time to time during the pendency of 19 the civil action or proceeding subject to certification that the employ-20 is entitled to representation under the terms and conditions of this 21 section by the head of the department, commission, division, office or agency in which such employee is employed and upon the audit and warrant 23 of the comptroller, and which shall include a determination by the comptroller that any such fees paid by the state are proportional to the 24 25 needs of the case and consistent with the manner and methods of defense employed in similar or representative cases. Attorneys' fees shall be 26 27 presumptively unreasonable where an individual hires or employs multiple 28 law firms on the same matter unless such employee can demonstrate the 29 need for additional attorneys with distinct subject matter expertise. 30 The state shall not pay any attorneys' fees deemed unreasonable by the 31 Any dispute with respect to representation of multiple comptroller. 32 employees by a single counsel or the amount of litigation expenses or 33 the reasonableness of attorneys' fees shall be resolved by the court 34 upon motion or by way of a special proceeding.
