IN SENATE

March 14, 2025

Introduced by Sen. MYRIE -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to making technical corrections to the clean slate law to correct issues relating to multicategory conviction dockets and the conviction-specific supervision prohibitor

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 160.57 of the 2 criminal procedure law, as added by chapter 631 of the laws of 2023, is 3 amended to read as follows:

4 (b) Criminal convictions shall be sealed upon satisfaction of the 5 following conditions:

6 (i) for a misdemeanor conviction, at least three years have passed 7 from the defendant's release from incarceration or the imposition of 8 sentence if there was no sentence of incarceration. If the defendant is 9 subsequently convicted of a crime before a prior conviction is sealed 10 pursuant to this section, the calculation of time for such prior 11 conviction shall start upon the same date as the time calculation starts 12 for the subsequent criminal conviction;

13 (ii) for a felony conviction, at least eight years have passed from 14 the date the defendant was last released from incarceration for the 15 sentence of the conviction eligible for sealing or from the imposition
16 of sentence if there was no sentence of incarceration. A defendant's 17 detention for an alleged violation of parole or post-release supervision 18 shall not interfere with the time calculation prescribed herein unless 19 and until supervision is revoked resulting in the defendant's reincar-
20 ceration. If the defendant is subsequently convicted of a crime before a 21 prior conviction is sealed pursuant to this section, the calculation of 22 time for such prior conviction shall start upon the same date as the 23 time calculation starts for the subsequent criminal conviction;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
