the Committee on Finance

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the appointment and reporting duties of the superintendent of the state police, the appointment of employees of the state police and the approval of certain duties of the state police

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 210 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 169 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows:

§ 210. Division of state police. (a) The division of state police in the executive department shall be known as the "New York State Police."

(b) (1) The head of the New York state police shall be the superintendent of state police who shall be appointed by the governor by and with the advice and consent of the senate, and hold office during [~~his or~~ ~~her~~] the governor's pleasure. The superintendent shall be a member of the state police, shall receive as salary such sum as may be appropriated by law, and shall accrue such leave credits and be eligible for the same retirement benefits, service credits and other benefits as any other member of the state police. The superintendent of state police shall have control of all staffing decisions, resource allocation and unit assignments within the state police. If, prior to appointment, the superintendent served as a member of the state police, [~~he or she~~] the superintendent, upon appointment, shall be entitled to continue to accrue and receive such credits and benefits as [~~he or she~~] the superintendent would have been entitled to accrue and receive prior to appointment.

(2) If, prior to [~~his or her~~] the superintendent's appointment, the superintendent shall have served as a member of the State Police for a 1 period of ten years or more, [~~he or she~~] the superintendent shall, 2 provided [~~he or she~~] the superintendent is not eligible for retirement, 3 upon termination of service as superintendent, be reappointed, without 4 examination, as a member of the state police in the grade held by [~~him~~ 5 ~~or her~~] the superintendent prior to appointment as superintendent, 6 notwithstanding the absence of any vacancy in such grade. For the 7 purpose of determining the annual salary to be paid upon such reappoint-8 ment, the period of service as superintendent shall be counted as 9 service in the grade to which reappointed.

10 (3) Effective with respect to any individual appointment by the gover-11 nor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, after January 12 first, two thousand twenty-six, the term of service of the superinten-13 dent of the state police shall be seven years. A superintendent may not 14 serve more than one seven-year term. The appointment of the first depu-15 ty superintendent shall also be subject to senate confirmation.

16 (4) Notwithstanding sections thirty-three and thirty-three-a of the 17 public officers law, a superintendent shall be removed from office for 18 failure to fulfill the duties of the office by the governor and with a 19 two-thirds vote of the whole number of members of each house of the 20 legislature or in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs e, f or g 21 of subdivision one of section thirty of the public officers law.

22 (5) In the event the superintendent resigns from office, is removed 23 from office or is incapable of continuing in office due to physical 24 illness, mental illness or death the first deputy superintendent shall 25 assume the superintendent position. If after forty-five days the gover-26 nor has not appointed a new superintendent to a full term, the first 27 deputy superintendent shall complete the remainder of the previous 28 superintendent's term. Upon assumption of the duties of superintendent, 29 the first deputy superintendent shall be subject to all requirements and 30 provisions associated with the superintendent's position. If the first 31 deputy superintendent completes the term of a previously appointed 32 superintendent, the first deputy is eligible for appointment to a full 33 term as superintendent in the first deputy's own right. All other poten-34 tial replacements within the ranks of the state police or from outside 35 its ranks for superintendent, in the event the first deputy is unable to 36 complete the previous superintendent's position, shall have the same 37 rights and eligibilities as the first deputy superintendent and shall be 38 subject to all the requirements and provisions associated with the 39 superintendent.

40 § 2. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 210-a to 41 read as follows:

42 § 210-a. Superintendent's annual reports and biennial testimony. (a) 43 The superintendent shall submit an annual report to the governor, the 44 temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the 45 minority leader of the senate and the minority leader of the assembly no 46 later than September first of each year.

47 (1) Such report shall contain the following information:

48 (A) a detailed description of any special requests made by or on 49 behalf of the governor or any member of the legislature for services of 50 the state police beyond traditional services provided by the state 51 police. Such description shall include whether the request was approved 52 or denied by the superintendent of state police;

53 (B) a detailed description of any information, unless it is privileged 54 or requires confidentiality, provided by the state police to the gover-55 nor, and/or the governor's staff, and/or to any member of the legisla-56 ture, and/or such member's staff, beyond the general programmatic and

1 budgetary reporting requirements of the state police and a description 2 of the purpose for which such information was provided;

3 (C) a description of any special disciplinary actions taken by the 4 superintendent regarding inter- or intra-governmental affairs involving 5 state police personnel, based upon special requests made to the state 6 police by or on behalf of the governor, any member of the legislature 7 and/or any other public or quasi-public entity;

8 (D) a description of each request made by or on behalf of the governor 9 and/or the governor's staff, and/or any member of the legislature and/or 10 such member's staff, for information of any kind other than the general 11 information provided by the state police to the executive branch, the 12 legislative branch, public authorities or local government entities; and 13 (E) a description of all officer transfers to or from the executive 14 services unit or any other unit associated with security and/or protect-15 ing other elected officials, and reason for the change. For transfers 16 from the executive services unit the superintendent of state police 17 shall include a description of what unit the officer transferred to. All 18 officer transfers to or from the executive services unit shall require 19 the approval of the superintendent of state police.

20 (2) The superintendent shall include a signed certification with the 21 report that the information provided is true to the best of the super-22 intendent's knowledge. If such certification is found to be false, the 23 superintendent may be subject to removal by the legislature.

24 (b) Every two years, commencing in two thousand twenty-six, the super-25 intendent shall attend a proceeding to testify before the senate finance 26 committee, the assembly ways and means committee, the senate investi-27 gations and government operations committee and the assembly oversight, 28 analysis and investigation committee to review the personnel and admin-29 istrative activities of the state police and the future plans and initi-30 ative of the state police. Such proceeding shall be conducted jointly at 31 the direction of the temporary president of the senate and the speaker 32 of the assembly and shall take place no later than November first of 33 every other year during which the proceeding is conducted.

34 (c) The reporting requirements described in this section shall be in 35 addition to, and not in lieu of, any other reporting requirements 36 provided by law.

37 (d) As used in this section, "traditional services" means services 38 rendered by the state police to:

39 (1) protect people and property;

40 (2) prevent and detect crime and other violations of law and pursue 41 criminal investigations and arrest criminals; and make roads safe for 42 all users;

43 (3) reduce the deaths, injuries and property damage caused by motor 44 vehicle accidents through vehicle and traffic enforcement and 45 education;

46 (4) provide disorder control and security in all types of natural 47 and human-made emergencies; and provide for the safety and security of 48 individuals and groups of citizens in furtherance of their rights, 49 duties and responsibilities; and 50 (5) support other entities by creating partnerships for safety and 51 security with individuals, groups and communities throughout the 52 state.

53 § 3. Section 211 of the executive law, as amended by chapter 331 of 54 the laws of 1993, is amended to read as follows:

55 § 211. Employees. (a) The superintendent may appoint such employees as 56 may be necessary and fix their compensation within such sum as may be

1 appropriated by law. Persons appointed to competitive positions within 2 the division who meet the definition of veteran or disabled veteran as 3 defined in section eighty-five of the civil service law shall be enti-4 tled to additional credit and preference as conferred by that law and in 5 the same manner, except that, notwithstanding any law to the contrary, 6 with respect to any candidate applying for credit in a competitive exam-7 ination for original appointment as a disabled or non-disabled veteran, 8 such candidate may apply provisionally for such credit while still an 9 active member of the armed forces. The application for provisional cred-10 it may be made at any time between the date of [~~his or her~~] the candi-11 date's application for the competitive examination and the date the 12 eligible list is established. In cases where there has been a provi-13 sional application, the superintendent shall grant final credit only if 14 the candidate renews [~~his or her~~] the application within ninety days 15 following termination of the candidate's military duty, and the candi-16 date's period of eligibility on the list has not expired, and the candi-17 date satisfies the appropriate statutory requirements for eligibility.
18 Pending the granting of final credit, the candidate's ranking on any 19 eligible list shall reflect the provisional credit.

20 (b) (1) Any employee appointed to the executive services unit or any 21 other unit associated with security and/or protecting other elected 22 and/or public officials shall hold such appointment for no more than two 23 years after which period, the employee shall be reappointed to the posi-24 tion such employee held prior to the appointment to the executive 25 services unit or any other unit associated with security and/or protect-26 ing other elected and/or public officials or to such other position and 27 duties as are determined by the superintendent.

28 (2) No employee appointed as provided in paragraph one of this subdivi-29 vision shall provide services that constitute a violation of the 30 provisions of paragraph d of subdivision three of section seventy-four 31 of the public officers law. Any requests for such services shall be 32 referred by the employee to the employee's superior who shall refer the 33 request to the superintendent. The superintendent shall approve or 34 disapprove all such requests.

35 § 4. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-36 ing the date upon which it shall have become a law.
