AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to establishing the women's health education program for correctional facilities and rights of pregnant incarcerated individuals; to amend the public health law, in relation to requiring certain testing to be offered; to amend the correction law, in relation to providing pregnant incarcerated individuals with access to prenatal vitamins and a specialized diet; and to require the department of health to collect data on women's health care in prisons and publish a report

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding a new section
2 207-b to read as follows:

3 § 207-b. Women's health education program in state and local correc-
4 tional facilities. The commissioner, in consultation with the commis-5 sioner of corrections and community supervision and the chair of the 6 state commission of correction, shall establish a women's health educa-
7 tion program in state and local correctional facilities. Such program 8 shall educate facility medical staff on the special medical needs of 9 women, including training on providing professional, respectful and 10 informed care of women who have been victims of domestic violence or 11 sexual violence.

12 § 2. Subdivision 1 of section 2308-a of the public health law, as 13 amended by section 38 of part E of chapter 56 of the laws of 2013, is 14 amended to read as follows:

15 1. The administrative officer or other person in charge of a clinic or 16 other facility providing gynecological, obstetrical, genito-urological, 17 contraceptive, sterilization or termination of pregnancy services or 18 treatment shall require the staff of such clinic or facility to offer to

2 clinic or facility for such services or treatment, appropriate examina-
3 tions or tests for the detection of sexually transmitted diseases. For 4 the purpose of this subdivision, the term "facility" shall include a 5 correctional facility as defined in subdivision four of section two of 6 the correction law.

7 § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 140 of the correction law, as added by 8 chapter 516 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

9 2. Subject to the regulations of the department of health, routine
10 medical, dental and mental health services and treatment is defined for 11 the purposes of this section to mean any routine diagnosis or treatment,
12 including without limitation the provision of gynecological services for 13 female incarcerated individuals, the administration of medications or
14 nutrition, the extraction of bodily fluids for analysis, and dental care
15 performed with a local anesthetic. Routine mental health treatment shall 16 not include psychiatric administration of medication unless it is part 17 of an ongoing mental health plan or unless it is otherwise authorized by 18 law.

19 § 4. Subdivision 2 of section 505 of the correction law, as added by 20 chapter 437 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

21 2. Subject to the regulations of the department of health, routine
22 medical, dental and mental health services and treatment is defined for 23 the purposes of this section to mean any routine diagnosis or treatment,
24 including without limitation the provision of gynecological services for 25 female incarcerated individuals, the administration of medications or
26 nutrition, the extraction of bodily fluids for analysis, and dental care
27 performed with a local anesthetic. Routine mental health treatment shall 28 not include psychiatric administration of medication unless it is part 29 of an ongoing mental health plan or unless it is otherwise authorized by 30 law.

31 § 5. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 140-a to 32 read as follows:

33 § 140-a. Prenatal care. If a pregnant person is confined to a state
34 or local correctional facility, such person shall be given prenatal care
35 comparable to such care available to pregnant persons in the community.
36 Such care shall include regular check-ups throughout the course of such 37 person's pregnancy and education on healthy lifestyle choices of benefit 38 to such person and such person's child. Pregnant persons confined to 39 such facilities shall also be given prenatal vitamins and a specialized 40 diet tailored to provide their nutritional needs during pregnancy.

41 § 6. The commissioner of corrections and community supervision, in 42 conjunction with the commissioner of health shall promulgate such rules 43 and regulations as may be necessary to effectuate the provisions of 44 section five of this act.

45 § 7. 1. The department of health, in cooperation with the department 46 of corrections and community supervision, shall conduct a study of 47 women's health care in prisons. Such study shall:

- 48 a. collect all available data relating to women's health care in pris-
49 ons;
- 50 b. determine how often women in prisons are being seen by a medical 51 professional;
- 52 c. determine how long it takes for women in prisons to be seen by a 53 medical professional;
- 54 d. identify what issues women in prisons are most often being seen 55 for;

1 e. determine the outcomes of women in prisons being seen by a medical 2 professional; and
3 f. investigate anything deemed relevant by the commissioner of health 4 or the commissioner of corrections and community supervision for the 5 purposes of this study.

6 2. Upon completion of the study required by subdivision one of this 7 section, the commissioner of health, or such commissioner's designee,
8 shall prepare a report to be given to the governor and the legislature
9 which shall include the findings of such study. Such report shall be 10 filed within one year of the effective date of this act, unless the 11 commissioner of health requests in writing, an extension of time.

12 3. All other departments or agencies of the state or subdivisions
13 thereof, and local governments shall, at the request of the commissioner 14 of health or the commissioner of corrections and community supervision,
15 provide expertise, assistance, and data that will enable such commis-
16 sioner to carry out such commissioner's powers and duties.

17 § 8. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that 18 section five of this act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth
19 day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addi-20 tion, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for 21 the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to 22 be made and completed on or before such effective date.
