Introduced by Sens. BRISPORT, GOUNARDES, ROLISON, SALAZAR -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Children and Families

AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to caseload standards for child protective services workers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 20-a of the social services law, as added by chapter 107 of the laws of 1971, is amended to read as follows:

2 § 20-a. Local personnel; limitations on department's power. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this chapter, the board, the 3 commissioner or the department, acting singly or in unison, shall not 4 have the power, directly or indirectly to prescribe the number of 5 persons to be employed in any social services district providing the 6 district complies with the minimum federal standards relating thereto;
7 provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply
8 to the regulations of the office of children and family services estab-
9 lishing caseload standards for child protective services workers promul-10 gated pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision nine of section four 11 hundred twenty-one of this chapter.

12 § 2. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of section 153-k of the social 13 services law, as added by section 15 of part C of chapter 83 of the laws
14 of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

15 (a) Expenditures made by social services districts for child protec-
16 tive services, preventive services provided, as applicable, to eligible 17 children and families of children who are in and out of foster care
18 placement, independent living services, aftercare services, and adoption 19 administration and services other than adoption subsidies provided 20 pursuant to article six of this chapter and the regulations of the 21 department of family assistance shall, if approved by the office of 22 children and family services, be subject to sixty-five percent state

1 reimbursement exclusive of any federal funds made available for such 2 purposes, in accordance with the directives of the department of family
3 assistance and subject to the approval of the director of the budget.
4 Provided however, for requirements prescribed in subdivision nine of 5 section four hundred twenty-one of this chapter, such expenditures shall 6 be subject to one hundred percent state reimbursement, provided that 7 local social services districts continue to maintain current expendi-
8 tures related to child protective services at a level equal to or great-9 er than expenditures for such activities during the fiscal year prior to 10 the effective date of a chapter of the laws of two thousand twenty-five 11 which amended this paragraph.

12 § 3. Section 421 of the social services law is amended by adding a new 13 subdivision 9 to read as follows:

14 9. promulgate regulations in consultation with local social services
15 districts, relating to caseload standards for child protective services 16 workers. Such standards shall include, but not be limited to:

17 (a) limitations on the number of investigations which can be assigned 18 to child protective services workers, provided however, to the extent 19 possible and within amounts appropriated therefor, no more than two 20 initial investigations per week may be assigned per full time equivalent 21 child protective services worker; and

22 (b) guidance as it relates to how such investigations are assigned, 23 taking into consideration the child protective services worker current 24 caseload, as well as the complexity of the particular investigation, if 25 known. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to prohibit the 26 office from prescribing local social services districts from establish-27 ing caseload standards that are less than what is required in this 28 subdivision.

29 § 4. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 1 of section 423 of the social 30 services law, as amended by chapter 83 of the laws of 1995, is amended 31 to read as follows:

32 (c) The child protective service shall have a sufficient staff, in 33 accordance with the provisions of subdivision nine of section four 34 hundred twenty-one of this title, of sufficient qualifications to 35 fulfill the purposes of this title and be organized in such a way as to 36 maximize the continuity of responsibility, care and service of individ-
37 ual workers toward individual children and families. A social services 38 district shall have flexibility in assigning staff to the child protec-39 tive service provided that each staff assigned to such service has the 40 staff qualifications and has received the training required by the 41 department regulations promulgated pursuant to subdivisions four and 42 five of section four hundred twenty-one of this title.

43 § 5. Section 426 of the social services law, as amended by section 44 11-a of part D of chapter 501 of the laws of 2012, is amended to read as 45 follows:

46 § 426. Annual reports. The commissioner shall prepare for inclusion in 47 the annual report required by subdivision (d) of section seventeen of 48 this chapter to be filed with the governor and the legislature prior to 49 December fifteenth of each year, a report on the operations of the state 50 central register of child abuse and maltreatment and the various local 51 child protective services. The report shall include a full statistical 52 analysis of the reports made to the central register together with a 53 report on the implementation of this title, [~~his or her~~] such commis-54 sioner's evaluation of services offered under this chapter and [~~his or~~ 55 ~~her~~] such commissioner's recommendations for additional legislation to 56 fulfill the purposes of this title. Such report shall indicate the

1 number of child abuse and maltreatment reports and cases received by the 2 statewide central register of child abuse and maltreatment by each 3 district in the preceding year, the number of such cases determined to 4 have been indicated and the number of such cases determined to be 5 unfounded by each district in the preceding year, the number of such 6 cases which have not been indicated or unfounded within the time period 7 required by subdivision seven of section four hundred twenty-four of 8 this ~~[article]~~ title by each district in the preceding year ~~[and]~~. Such 9 report shall also include a monthly accounting by local social services
10 districts, of the total number of child protective services workers 11 ~~[assigned to the child protective service in each district in]~~ with an 12 indication of how many hold a supervisory position, as well as the aver-13 age number of active cases per child protective services worker, with an 14 indication of how many were in the initial investigation stage at the 15 time the information was collected for the preceding year. Such report 16 shall include, among other information, available demographic informa-
17 tion and available information concerning the racial and ethnic charac-
18 teristics of the family members and persons served by the differential 19 response program pursuant to section four hundred twenty-seven-a of ~~[the~~ 20 ~~social services law]~~ this title, as well as available information
21 concerning the racial and ethnic characteristics of the family members 22 and persons serviced under the traditional child protective services
23 program, in each local social services district in the state.

24 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, 25 sections one, two, three and four of this act shall take effect on the 26 seven hundred thirtieth day after it shall have become a law; provided, 27 further, however that the amendments to section 153-k of the social 28 services law made by section two of this act shall not affect the repeal 29 of such section and shall be deemed repealed therewith.
