1 prescribed in this chapter. In a city with a population of one million 2 or more, charges for towing and associated storage shall not exceed the 3 amounts set forth in section 20-509 of the administrative code of the 4 city of New York. A lien under this section may be had for any amount 5 over the limits set forth in such section. A lien under this article may 6 be had against an interest in real property and against an interest in 7 personal property that can be sufficiently described within the meaning 8 of section 9-108 of the uniform commercial code, except that a lien 9 under this article shall not extend to deposit accounts or goods as 10 those terms are defined in section 9-102 of the uniform commercial 11 code.

12 2. Notice of a lien under this section may be filed at any time not 13 later than three years following violation giving rise to the claim. A 14 notice of lien on personal property must be filed, together with a 15 financing statement, in the filing office as set forth in section 9-501 16 of the uniform commercial code.

17 3. Within five days before or thirty days after filing the notice of a 18 lien authorized pursuant to this article, the lienor shall serve a copy 19 of such notice upon the owner of the commercial towing company, if a 20 natural person, (a) by delivering the same to such owner personally, or 21 if the owner cannot be found, to their agent or attorney, or (b) by 22 leaving it as the owner's last known place of residence or business, 23 with a person of suitable age and discretion, or (c) by registered or 24 certified mail addressed to the owner's last known place of residence or 25 business, or (d) if such person owns real property, by affixing a copy 26 thereof conspicuously on such property, between the hours of nine 27 o'clock in the forenoon and four o'clock in the afternoon. The lienor 28 also shall, within thirty days after filing the notice of lien, affix a 29 copy thereof conspicuously on the real property identified in the notice 30 of lien, between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and four 31 o'clock in the afternoon. If the commercial towing company be a corpo-32 ration, said service shall be made (i) by delivering such copy to and 33 leaving the same with the president, vice-president, secretary or clerk 34 to the corporation, the cashier, treasurer or a director or managing 35 agent thereof, personally, within the state, or (ii) if such officer 36 cannot be found within the state, by affixing a copy thereof conspicu-37 ously on such property between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon 38 and four o'clock in the afternoon, or (iii) by registered or certified 39 mail addressed to its last known place of business, or (iv) by delivery 40 to the secretary of the department of state in the same manner as 41 required by subparagraph one of paragraph (b) of section three hundred 42 six of the business corporation law. Failure to file proof of such a 43 service with the county clerk within thirty-five days after the notice 44 of lien is filed shall terminate the notice as a lien. Until service of 45 the notice has been made, as above provided, an owner, without knowledge 46 of the lien, shall be protected in payment made in good faith to any 47 other person claiming a lien.

48 4. (a) No lien on real property under this section shall be a lien for 49 a longer period than one year after the notice of lien has been filed, 50 unless an extension to such lien is filed with the county clerk of the 51 county in which the notice of lien is filed within one year from the 52 filing of the original notice of lien, continuing such lien and such 53 lien shall be redocketed as of the date of filing such extension. Such 54 extension shall contain the names of the lienor and the owner of the 55 real property against whose interest therein such lien is claimed, a 56 brief description of the property affected by such lien, the amount of 1 such lien, and the date of filing the notice of lien. No lien shall be 2 continued by such extension for more than one year from the filing ther-3 eof. In the event an action is not commenced to obtain judgment on the 4 claim or to foreclose the lien within such extended period, such lien 5 shall be extinguished unless an order be granted by a court of record or 6 a judge or justice thereof, continuing such lien, and such lien shall 7 be redocketed as of the date of granting such order and a statement made 8 that such lien is continued by virtue of such order.

9 (b) No lien on personal property under this section shall be a lien 10 for a longer period than one year after the financing statement has been 11 recorded, unless an extension to such lien, is filed with the filing 12 office in which the financing statement is required to be filed pursuant 13 to section 9-501 of the uniform commercial code within one year from the 14 filing of the original financing statement, continuing such lien. Such 15 extension shall contain the names of the lienor and the owner of the 16 property against whose interest therein such lien is claimed, a brief 17 description of the prior financing statement to be extended, and the 18 date of filing the prior financing statement. No lien shall be continued 19 by such extension for more than one year from the filing thereof. In the 20 event an action is not commenced to obtain judgement on the claim or to 21 foreclose the lien within such extended period, such lien shall be 22 extinguished unless an order be granted by a court of record or a judge 23 or justice thereof, continuing such lien, and such lien shall be refiled 24 as of the date of granting such order and a statement made that such 25 lien is continued by virtue of such order.

26 (c) If a lienor is made a party defendant in an action to enforce 27 another lien, and the plaintiff or such defendant has filed a notice of 28 the pendency of the action within the time prescribed in this section, 29 the lien of such defendant is thereby continued. Such action shall be 30 deemed an action to enforce the lien of such defendant lienor. The fail-31 ure to file a notice of pendency of action shall not abate the action as 32 to any person liable for the payment of the debt specified in the notice 33 of lien, and the action may be prosecuted to judgment against such 34 person. The provisions of this section in regard to continuing liens 35 shall apply to liens discharged by deposit or by order on the filing of 36 an undertaking. Where a lien is discharged by deposit or by order, a 37 notice of pendency of action shall not be filed.

38 (d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a lienor commences a foreclosure 39 action or an action to obtain a judgment on the claim within one year 40 from the filing of the notice of lien on real property or the recording 41 of the financing statement creating lien on personal property, the lien 42 shall be extended during the pendency of the action and for one hundred 43 twenty days following the entry of final judgment in such action, unless 44 the action results in a final judgment or administrative order in the 45 lienor's favor on the claims and the lienor commences a foreclosure 46 action, in which instance the lien shall be valid during the pendency of 47 the foreclosure action. If a lien is extended due to the pendency of a 48 foreclosure action or an action to obtain a judgment on the claim, the 49 lienor shall file a notice of such pendency and extension with the coun-50 ty clerk of the county in which the notice of lien is filed, containing 51 the names of the parties to the action, the object of the action, a 52 brief description of the property affected thereby, and the time of 53 filing the notice of lien, or in the case of a lien on personal property 54 shall file such notice with the office authorized to accept financing 55 statements pursuant to section 9-501 of the uniform commercial code.

(e) A lien, the duration of which has been extended by the filing of a notice of the pendency of an action as above provided, shall nevertheless terminate as a lien after such notice has been canceled as provided in section sixty-five hundred fourteen of the civil practice law and rules or has ceased to be effective as constructive notice as provided in section sixty-five hundred thirteen of the civil practice law and rules.

§ 171. Enforcement of lien. 1. A lien on real property authorized under this article may be enforced against such property, and against a person liable for the judgment upon which the lien is founded, by an action, by the lienor, their assignee or legal representative, in the supreme court or in a county court otherwise having jurisdiction, regardless of the amount of such judgment, or in a court which has jurisdiction in an action founded on a contract for a sum of money equivalent to the amount of such judgment, in the same manner as prescribed in article three of this chapter.

2. A lien on personal property specified in this article may immediately be enforced against the property through a foreclosure as prescribed in article nine of the uniform commercial code, or upon judgment obtained by the owner of the motor vehicle, or the attorney general of the state of New York, and may be enforced in any manner available to the judgment creditor pursuant to article nine of the uniform commercial code or other applicable laws.

3. A lien, where notice has been filed on real property or a bond given to discharge the same, may be vacated and cancelled or a deposit made to discharge a lien pursuant to section twenty of this chapter may be returned, by an order of a court of record. Before such order shall be granted, a notice shall be served upon the lienor, either personally or by leaving it at the lienor's last known place of residence or attorney's place of business, with a person of suitable age, with directions to deliver it to the lienor. Such notice shall require the lienor to commence an action to enforce the lien, or to commence an action to obtain judgment on the claim upon which the lien was established, within a time specified in the notice, not less than ninety days from the time of service, or show cause at a special term of a court of record, or at a county court, in a county in which the property is situated, at a time and place specified therein, why the notice of lien filed or the bond given should not be vacated and cancelled, or the deposit returned, as the case may be. Proof of such service and that the lienor has not commenced the action to foreclose such lien or an action to obtain judgment on the claim upon which the lien was established, as directed in the notice, shall be made by affidavit, at the time of applying for such order.

§ 2. Subdivision 2 of section 399-xx of the general business law, as added by chapter 690 of the laws of 2004, is amended to read as follows:

2. Requirements. A commercial tower who responds to a call for assistance from an owner or operator of a vehicle that is inoperable or cannot be safely operated or who offers to transport, repair, or render safely operable such a vehicle shall, in compliance with any reasonable request of an owner or operator of such vehicle, repair the vehicle or transport the vehicle and its occupants to a reasonably safe location where repairs can be made. The commercial tower shall not be required to transport all vehicle occupants if the number of occupants exceeds the number of passengers that can be safely transported. The owner or operator of the vehicle shall be liable to the commercial tower for the cost of towing and repair services provided. A written invoice stating the cost of the towing and/or services, signed by both the commercial tower and the owner or authorized user of the motor vehicle, shall be provided prior to any towing or services being performed. The commercial tower shall accept cash and all other forms of payment that such commercial tower accepts in the ordinary course of business, including credit and debit cards as those terms are defined in section five hundred eleven of this chapter as payment for all or part of the charges for towing and repair services accepted and provided. The commercial tower may require such proof of identification from persons making payments in forms other than cash as the commercial tower requires for such payments in the ordinary course of business. If the owner or operator of a vehicle declines services of the commercial tower or cannot or will not provide payment and identification for towing or repair services, a commercial tower shall notify law enforcement about the location and identification of the vehicle and its occupants. The provisions of this section do not apply to a vehicle which is lawfully parked at the home of the vehicle's owner or operator.

§ 3. Section 20-509 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new subdivision e to read as follows:

e. A written invoice stating the cost of the towing and/or repair services, signed by both the commercial tower and the owner or authorized user of the motor vehicle, shall be provided prior to any towing or repair services being performed, except where the towing was without the prior consent or authorization of such motor vehicle owner. Upon the release of a towed motor vehicle the owner shall receive an invoice stating the amount charged and the amount paid.

§ 4. Subdivision 5 of section 6201 of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by chapter 860 of the laws of 1977 and as renumbered by chapter 618 of the laws of 1992, is amended and a new subdivision 6 is added to read as follows:

5. the cause of action is based on a judgment, decree or order of a court of the United States or of any other court which is entitled to full faith and credit in this state, or on a judgment which qualifies for recognition under the provisions of article 53~~[-]~~ of this chapter;
or

6. the cause of action is based on claims of illegal or improper practices relating to the towing of motor vehicles, including but not limited to violations of section 19-169.1 of the administrative code of the city of New York.

§ 5. The business corporation law is amended by adding a new section 631 to read as follows:

§ 631. Liability of shareholders of commercial towing companies for claims of illegal or improper towing practices.

(b) A shareholder who has paid more than their pro rata share under this section shall be entitled to contribution pro rata from the other shareholders liable under this section with respect to the excess so

1 paid, over and above their pro rata share, and may sue them jointly or 2 severally or any number of them to recover the amount due from them.
3 Such recovery may be had in a separate action. As used in this para-
4 graph, "pro rata" means in proportion to beneficial share interest.
5 Before a shareholder may claim contribution from other shareholders
6 under this paragraph, such shareholder shall give them notice in writing 7 that the shareholder intends to hold them so liable. Such notice shall 8 be given by such shareholder within twenty days after the date that 9 notice was given under paragraph (a) of this section.

10 § 6. Section 609 of the limited liability company law is amended by 11 adding a new subdivision (e) to read as follows:

13 section, the ten members with the largest percentage ownership interest 14 of every limited liability company, shall jointly and severally be 15 personally liable for all claims due and owing to any person as a result 16 of an action to recover damages for violations associated with illegal 17 or improper practices relating to the towing of motor vehicles, includ-
18 ing but not limited to violations of section 19-169.1 of the administra-
19 tive code of the city of New York.

20 § 7. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 21 have become a law.
