AN ACT in relation to authorizing Daniel Woolley to receive an accidental disability retirement

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, Daniel Woolley,
2 who was employed by the town of Clarkstown as a police officer from
3 February 1991 to February 2023 and who retired from service on February 4 25, 2023, and who was diagnosed with an aortic aneurysm of the heart on 5 February 15, 2024, and who, as of the effective date of this act, is 6 receiving a service retirement benefit from the New York state and local 7 police and fire retirement system, shall be entitled to apply for an 8 accidental disability retirement from the New York state and local 9 police and fire retirement system pursuant to section 363 of the retire-
10 ment and social security law if, within one year of the effective date
11 of this act, he shall file a written request with the state comptroller.
12 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

FISCAL NOTE.--Pursuant to Legislative Law, Section 50:

This bill would entitle Daniel Woolley, a service retiree of the New York State and Local Police and Fire Retirement System (NYSLPFRS), to apply for an accidental disability retirement, pursuant to section 363 of the retirement and social security law.

There will be an immediate past service cost of $74,000 as of February 1, 2027. This cost will be shared by the State of New York and the local participating employers in NYSLPFRS and spread over future billing cycles.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
