30 er the full purchase price or, if applicable, the lease price and any 31 trade-in allowance plus fees and charges. Such fees and charges shall 32 include but not be limited to all license fees, registration fees and

45 of attempts, the manufacturer, at the option of the consumer, shall 46 replace the motor vehicle with a comparable motor vehicle, or accept 47 return of the vehicle from the consumer and refund to the consumer the 18 entitle the consumer to recover a fee of [~~twenty-five~~] up to two hundred

20 hundred] two thousand dollars. Provided, however, that nothing contained 21 in this subdivision shall impose any liability on a manufacturer where a 22 delay beyond the thirty day period is attributable to a consumer who has 23 requested a replacement vehicle built to order or with options that are 24 not comparable to the vehicle being replaced or otherwise made compli-25 ance impossible within said period. In no event shall a consumer who has 26 resorted to an informal dispute settlement mechanism be precluded from

1. If you purchase a used car for more than one thousand five hundred dollars, or lease a used car where you and the dealer have agreed that the car's value is more than one thousand five hundred dollars, from anyone selling or leasing three or more used cars a year, you must be given a written warranty.

2 if [~~he~~] such dealer so chooses, reimburse you for the reasonable cost of 3 repair.

4 5. If the same problem cannot be repaired after three or more 5 attempts, you are entitled to return the car and receive a refund of 6 your purchase price or of all payments made under your lease contract,
7 and of sales tax and fees, minus a reasonable allowance for any damage
8 not attributable to normal usage or wear, and, in the case of a lease 9 contract, a cancellation of all further payments you are otherwise 10 required to make under the lease contract.

11 6. If your car is out of service to repair a problem for a total of 25 neglect, or unreasonable modification.

26 9. If a dealer has established an arbitration procedure, the dealer 27 may refuse to refund your purchase price until you first resort to the 31 10. As an alternative to the arbitration procedure made available 32 through the dealer you may instead choose to submit your claim to an

34 to pay a fee for such an arbitration. Contact your local consumer office 35 or attorney general's office to find out how to arrange for independent 36 arbitration.

42 the option of submitting any dispute arising under this section to an 43 alternate arbitration mechanism established pursuant to regulations 44 promulgated hereunder by the attorney general. Upon application of the 45 consumer and payment of the filing fee, the dealer shall submit to such 46 alternate arbitration.

47 Such alternate arbitration shall be conducted by a professional arbi-
48 trator or arbitration firm appointed by and under regulations estab-
49 lished by the attorney general. Such mechanism shall ensure the personal 50 objectivity of its arbitrators and the right of each party to present 51 its case, to be in attendance during any presentation made by the other 52 party and to rebut or refute such presentation. In all other respects, 53 such alternate arbitration mechanism shall be governed by article seven-54 ty-five of the civil practice law and rules.

1 The notice required by paragraph one of this subdivision, entitled 2 Used Car Lemon Law Bill of Rights, shall be provided to arbitrators and 3 consumers who seek arbitration under this subdivision.

4 A dealer shall have thirty days from the date of mailing of a copy of 5 the arbitrator's decision to such dealer to comply with the terms of 6 such decision. Failure to comply within the thirty day period shall 7 entitle the consumer to recover, in addition to any other recovery to 8 which ~~[he]~~ such consumer may be entitled, a fee of ~~[twenty-five]~~ two 9 hundred fifty dollars for each business day beyond thirty days up to 10 ~~[five-hundred]~~ two thousand dollars; provided however, that nothing in 11 this subdivision shall impose any liability on a dealer where a delay 12 beyond the thirty day period is attributable to a consumer who has 13 requested a particular replacement vehicle or otherwise made compliance 14 impossible within said period.

15 The commissioner of motor vehicles or any person deputized by ~~[him]~~
16 such commissioner may deny the application of any person for registra-
17 tion under section four hundred fifteen of the vehicle and traffic law 18 and suspend or revoke a registration under such section or refuse to 19 issue a renewal thereof if ~~[he]~~ such commissioner or such deputy deter-
20 mines that such applicant or registrant or any officer, director, stock-21 holder, or partner, or any other person directly or indirectly inter-22 ested in the business has deliberately failed to pay an arbitration
23 award, which has not been stayed or appealed, rendered in an arbitration 24 proceeding pursuant to this paragraph for sixty days after the date of 25 mailing of a copy of the award to the registrant. Any action taken by 26 the commissioner of motor vehicles pursuant to this paragraph shall be 27 governed by the procedures set forth in subdivision nine of section four 28 hundred fifteen of the vehicle and traffic law.

29 § 10. This act shall take effect one year after it shall have become a 30 law.
