§ 20. Section 450.10 of the penal law is amended by adding a new subdivision 12 to read as follows:

12. When fraudulent proceeds, as defined in paragraph (a) of this subdivision, are in the custody or control of the court, a police officer, a peace officer, or a district attorney, or have been seized pursuant to a search warrant and are held by a third party, no later than ninety days after the seizure or recovery of such fraudulent proceeds, a police officer, a peace officer, or a district attorney shall identify to the court the owner or owners of such fraudulent proceeds as defined in subdivision five of section 155.00 of this chapter, and any other person who may have an interest therein, and give notice of said seizure to such persons by certified or registered mail, or by other means, including, but not limited to, electronic means, if sufficient and appropriate under the circumstances.

(a) For the purposes of this subdivision, fraudulent proceeds means any virtual currency, as defined in paragraph (p) of section 200.2 of title 23 of the New York Codes, Rules and Regulations, that is (i) obtained through the commission of a larceny or a fraudulent scheme or transaction, (ii) traceable to property obtained through the commission of a larceny or a fraudulent scheme or transaction, or (iii) obtained through the sale or exchange of property obtained through the commission of a larceny or a fraudulent scheme or transaction; and including any appreciation in value of such property.

9 the owner or owners. On that showing, the burden shall shift to the 10 claimant to prove by clear and convincing evidence that they did not 11 know and could not have reasonably known that such property was being 12 used or was intended to be used in, or was derived from, criminal activ-

14 the fraudulent proceeds, the court shall order such fraudulent proceeds

31 ~~interest in any account, at a bank, insurance company, brokerage,~~
32 ~~exchange or banking organization as defined in section two of the bank-~~
33 ~~ing law].~~

34 § 22. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 8 of section 190.30 of the criminal 35 procedure law, as added by chapter 279 of the laws of 2008, is amended 36 to read as follows:

37 (c) Any business record offered to a grand jury pursuant to paragraph 38 (a) of this subdivision that includes material [~~beyond that described in~~ 39 ~~such paragraph (a)] outside the scope of the business record as regular-40 ly generated shall be redacted to exclude such additional material, or 41 received subject to a limiting instruction that the grand jury shall not 42 consider such additional material in support of any criminal charge.~~

43 § 23. Section 190.30 of the criminal procedure law is amended by 44 adding a new subdivision 9 to read as follows:

45 9. A record generated by an electronic process, computer, cryptograph-

48 accompanied by a written declaration of a qualified person, made under 49 oath, stating the qualification of the person to make the certification, 50 the date and time the record was generated, and that the record was 51 maintained as a regular conducted process.

52 § 24. Section 80.10 of the penal law is amended by adding a new subdi-
53 vision 4 to read as follows:

54 4. Corporate equity fines. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of 55 this section, in any criminal proceeding where a corporation doing busi-
56 ness in New York state with annual revenues exceeding one hundred

1 million dollars is convicted of a felony offense under the laws of this 2 state, the court, in addition to or in lieu of any other penalty author-3 ized by law, may impose an equity fine. An equity fine shall consist of 4 a judicially determined percentage of the corporation's equity, which 5 shall be issued as new, non-voting shares to a state-managed fund or a 6 designated victim compensation fund.

7 (b) The court may determine the percentage of the equity fine based 8 upon the severity of the offense, the extent of the harm caused, the 9 corporation's history of similar misconduct, the degree of complicity by 10 senior management, and the need for both specific and general deter-
11 rence. The percentage shall be sufficient to impose a meaningful econom-
12 ic sanction on the corporation and its shareholders. The court may 13 consider, but shall not be limited to, the following factors in deter-14 mining such percentage:

15 (i) The total pecuniary gain to the corporation from the offense;

16 (ii) The total pecuniary loss caused by the offense to victims;

17 (iii) The market capitalization of the corporation at the time of 18 sentencing;

19 (iv) The effectiveness of the corporation's internal compliance 20 programs at the time of the offense; and

21 (v) Any remedial actions taken by the corporation, including cooper-22 ation with the prosecution and restitution to victims.

23 (c) The convicted corporation shall be required to issue new, non-vot-24 ing shares equal to the determined percentage of its total equity. These 25 shares shall be registered and transferred to a fund established by the 26 New York state comptroller or a specific victim compensation fund as 27 designated by the court. The shares shall be held by the state until 28 such time as their sale would maximize public benefit or victim compen-29 sation, as determined by the administering entity, but in no event shall 30 the state or its designated fund exercise any voting rights associated 31 with such shares.

32 (d) The shares issued as an equity fine shall be explicitly designated 33 as non-voting shares.

34 (e) This subdivision shall not apply to closely held corporations 35 where the imposition of an equity fine would disproportionately penalize 36 a small number of individual owners who may also be directly subject to 37 criminal prosecution. The court shall have discretion to determine 38 whether a corporation is closely held for the purposes of this 39 exemption.

40 § 25. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 155.50 to read 41 as follows:

47 shall be deemed to be one category higher than the specified offense the 48 defendant committed, or one category higher than the offense level 49 applicable to the defendant's conviction for an attempt or conspiracy to 50 commit a specified offense, whichever is applicable.
