AN ACT to amend the public service law, in relation to the reconnection of service for low-income customers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 35 of the public service law, as amended by chapter 686 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

1. The commission shall by regulation establish reasonable conditions under which an electric or gas corporation or municipality shall be required to take all actions within such corporation or municipality's control and, where applicable, consistent with the provision of the agreement for commodity service, if any, between the corporation and the customer, provided such provisions are consistent with this article to reconnect service to residential customers. Such conditions shall include, but not be limited to, requirements for reconnection of service within twenty-four hours, unless prevented by circumstances beyond the utility's or municipality's control, (a) upon receipt by a corporation or municipality of the full amount of arrears which were the basis for termination of service, (b) upon the signing of a deferred payment plan together with a down payment based on criteria to be established by the commission, provided that no such down payment shall exceed one-half of the amount which was the basis of termination, or the amount of three months billing, whichever is less, (c) upon the direction of the commission, (d) upon the receipt of a commitment of a direct payment or a written guarantee of payment from the social services official of the social services district in which the customer resides ~~[or]~~. (e) where the utility or municipality has notice that a serious impairment to health or safety is likely to result if service is not reconnected or (f) where a low-income customer has demonstrated an inability to pay the full amount of arrears which were the basis for termination of service, upon the signing of a reconnection plan where such low-income customer
