33 § 6. Section 616 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 666 of 34 the laws of 1976, is amended to read as follows:

35 § 616. Issuance of summons. On the filing of a petition under this 36 part, the court may cause a copy of the petition and a summons to be 37 issued, requiring the parent to show cause why the court should not 38 enter an order committing the guardianship and custody of the child to 39 the petitioner [~~for the reason that the child is permanently neglected~~].

40 § 7. Section 622 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 123 of 41 the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows:

42 § 622. Definition of "fact-finding hearing". When used in this part, 43 "fact-finding hearing" means in the case of a petition for the commit-44 ment of the guardianship and custody of a child based on permanent 45 neglect, a hearing to determine whether [~~the allegations required by~~ 46 ~~paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of subdivision one of section six~~ 47 ~~hundred fourteen are supported by clear and convincing proof] such child 48 is permanently neglected, in the case of a petition for the commitment 49 of the guardianship and custody of a child based on abandonment, a hear-50 ing to determine whether a child is abandoned, and in the case of a 51 petition for the commitment of the guardianship and custody of a child 52 based on mental illness or intellectual disability, a hearing to deter-53 mine whether the requirements of paragraph (c) of subdivision four of 54 section three hundred eighty-four-b of the social services law are met.~~

55 § 8. Section 631 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 469 of 56 the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:

1 § 631. Disposition [~~on adjudication of permanent neglect~~]. 1. At the 2 conclusion of a dispositional hearing on a petition for the commitment 3 of the guardianship and custody of a child, the court shall enter an 4 order of disposition:

5 (a) dismissing the petition in accord with section six hundred thir-6 ty-two; or

7 (b) suspending judgment in accord with section six hundred thirty-8 three; or

9 (c) committing the guardianship and custody of the child in accord 10 with section six hundred thirty-four; provided, however, that an order 11 of disposition committing the guardianship and custody of the child may 12 not be entered after the child's eighteenth birthday, unless the child 13 consents[+]; or

14 (d) granting custody or guardianship of the child to a relative or 15 other suitable person; or

16 (e) where the court finds that it would be in the child's best inter-17 ests to grant an order of kinship guardianship of the child to a rela-18 tive or other suitable person who would be eligible for kinship guardi-19 anship assistance, but the prospective guardian and the social services 20 district have not yet entered into an agreement to provide kinship guar-21 dianship assistance payments for the child under title ten of article 22 six of the social services law, ordering the petitioner to assist the 23 prospective guardian to file the necessary paperwork for kinship guardi-24 anship, and setting a date certain for a hearing to ensure that the 25 necessary paperwork has been completed and the case is progressing.

26 2. (a) An order of disposition shall be made, pursuant to this 27 section, solely on the basis of the best interests of the child, and 28 [there shall be no presumption that such interests will be promoted by 29 any particular disposition] an order committing the guardianship and 30 custody of a child pursuant to this section shall be granted only upon a 31 finding by clear and convincing evidence that it is in the best inter-32 ests of the child. In determining the best interests of the child, the 33 court shall consider:

34 (i) the child's interest in growing up in a permanent home;

35 (ii) the child's interests in continuing connection to parents, 36 siblings, extended family, and the child's community, and whether a 37 termination of parental rights would jeopardize such connections; and

38 (iii) whether the child is likely to be adopted if parental rights are 39 terminated.

40 (b) The court shall not terminate parental rights unless it has 41 considered and eliminated less drastic alternatives, including but not 42 limited to, an order of custody or guardianship to a relative or other 43 suitable person, and the court has found that termination of parental 44 rights is strictly necessary to ensure the best interests of the child.

45 § 9. Subparagraphs (iv), (v) and (vi) of paragraph (b) of subdivision 46 2 of section 754 of the family court act, as added by chapter 7 of the 47 laws of 1999, are amended to read as follows:

51 than eleven years old as defined in section 120.12 of the penal law, and

2 parent[~~, or~~

3 ~~(vi) the parental rights of the parent to a sibling of such child have~~ 4 ~~been involuntarily terminated,~~
5 ~~unless the court determines that providing reasonable efforts would be~~
6 ~~in the best interests of the child, not contrary to the health and safe-~~ 7 ~~ty of the child, and would likely result in the reunification of the~~ 8 ~~parent and the child in the foreseeable future. The court shall state~~ 9 ~~such findings in its order].~~

10 § 10. Paragraphs 4, 5 and 6 of subdivision (b) of section 1039-b of 11 the family court act, as added by chapter 7 of the laws of 1999, are 12 amended to read as follows:

13 (4) the parent of such child has been convicted of assault in the 14 second degree as defined in section 120.05, assault in the first degree
15 as defined in section 120.10 or aggravated assault upon a person less 16 than eleven years old as defined in section 120.12 of the penal law, and 17 the commission of one of the foregoing crimes resulted in serious phys-18 ical injury to the child or another child of the parent; or

20 tion of an offense which includes all of the essential elements of any 21 crime specified in paragraph two, three or four of this subdivision, and 22 the victim of such offense was the child or another child of the 23 parent[~~, or~~

24 ~~(6) the parental rights of the parent to a sibling of such child have~~ 25 ~~been involuntarily terminated,~~
26 ~~unless the court determines that providing reasonable efforts would be~~
27 ~~in the best interests of the child, not contrary to the health and safe-~~ 28 ~~ty of the child, and would likely result in the reunification of the~~ 29 ~~parent and the child in the foreseeable future. The court shall state~~ 30 ~~such findings in its order].~~

31 § 11. Clauses 4, 5 and 6 of subparagraph (A) of paragraph (i) of 32 subdivision (b) of section 1052 of the family court act, as amended by 33 chapter 7 of the laws of 1999, are amended to read as follows:

34 (4) the parent of such child has been convicted of assault in the 35 second degree as defined in section 120.05, assault in the first degree
36 as defined in section 120.10 or aggravated assault upon a person less

49 ~~ty of the child, and would likely result in the reunification of the~~ 50 ~~parent and the child in the foreseeable future. The court shall state~~
51 ~~such findings in its order].~~

52 § 12. Subparagraph (iii) of paragraph 4 and subparagraph (viii) of 53 paragraph 5 of subdivision (c) and subparagraphs (iii) and (iv) of para-54 graph 2 of subdivision (d) of section 1089 of the family court act,

56 section 9, subparagraph (viii) of paragraph 5 of subdivision (c) as

6 (iii) where return home of the child is not likely, the reasonable 7 efforts that have been made by the local social services district or

9 (A) consideration of appropriate in-state and out-of-state place-10 ments[.];

11 (B) consideration of guardianship or custody as potential permanent 12 options for the child;

13 (C) efforts made to develop a permanent plan for the child that would 14 maintain the child's connection to their family and community; and 15 (D) any other steps taken to further a permanent plan other than 16 return to the child's parent; or

17 (viii) where return home of the child is not likely, the efforts that 18 will be made to evaluate or plan for another permanent plan, including:

19 (A) consideration of appropriate in-state and out-of-state placements;

20 (B) consideration of guardianship or custody as potential permanent 21 options for the child; and

22 (C) efforts that will be made to develop a permanent plan for the 23 child that would maintain the child's connection to their family and 24 community; and

25 (iii) determining whether reasonable efforts have been made to effec-26 tuate the child's permanency plan as follows:

27 (A) unless the child is freed for adoption or there has been a deter-28 mination by a court that such efforts are not required pursuant to 29 section one thousand thirty-nine-b of this act, whether reasonable 30 efforts have been made to eliminate the need for placement of the child 31 and to enable the child to safely return home; or

32 (B) where the permanency plan is adoption, guardianship, placement 33 with a fit and willing relative or another planned permanent living

42 (iv) where return home of the child is not likely, what efforts should 43 be made to evaluate or plan for another permanent plan, including:

44 (A) consideration of appropriate in-state and out-of-state placements;

45 (B) consideration of guardianship or custody as potential permanent 46 options for the child; and

47 (C) efforts to develop a permanent plan for the child that would main-48 tain the child's connection to their family and community;

49 § 13. Subparagraphs (vi), (vii) and (viii) of paragraph 2 of subdivi-50 sion (d) of section 1089 of the family court act are relettered subpara-51 graphs (vii), (viii) and (ix) and a new subparagraph (vi) is added to 52 read as follows:

53 (vi) unless it finds such efforts would be detrimental to the best 54 interests of the child or there has been a prior court order finding 55 that such efforts are not required, the court shall make an order 56 directing a local social services district or agency to undertake dili-

1 gent efforts to encourage and strengthen the parental relationship. Such 2 efforts shall include encouraging and facilitating visitation with the 3 child by the parent or other person legally responsible for the child's 4 care. Such order may include a specific plan of action for the local 5 social services district or agency including, but not limited to, 6 requirements that such agency assist the parent or other person legally 7 responsible for the child's care in obtaining adequate housing, employ-8 ment, counseling, medical care or psychiatric treatment. If a parent 9 known to the agency has not established legal parentage with regard to 10 the child, such order shall include explaining the process of establish-11 ing parentage to the child's parent and assisting the parent with that 12 process if the parent wishes to undertake it. Such order shall also 13 include encouraging and facilitating visitation with the child by the 14 noncustodial parent and grandparents who have the right to visitation 15 pursuant to section one thousand eighty-one of this act. Such order may 16 also include encouraging and facilitating regular visitation and commu-17 nication with the child by the child's siblings and may incorporate an 18 order, if any, issued pursuant to this section or section one thousand 19 twenty-seven-a or section one thousand eighty-one of this act, or pursu-20 ant to section three hundred fifty-eight-a of the social services law or 21 section seventy-one of the domestic relations law. For purposes of this 22 subparagraph, "siblings" shall include half-siblings and those who would 23 be deemed siblings or half-siblings but for the surrender, termination 24 of parental rights or death of a parent. Nothing in this subparagraph 25 shall be deemed to limit the authority of the court to make an order 26 pursuant to section two hundred fifty-five of this act. If the court 27 directs the local social services district or agency to provide a 28 service required by section four hundred nine-d of the social services 29 law and its implementing regulations and such agency fails to provide 30 that service, the court shall enter a finding that the agency has not 31 made reasonable efforts at the next permanency hearing unless it finds 32 good cause for the agency's failure. For purposes of this subparagraph, 33 good cause shall not be established by a claim that the service is 34 unavailable;

35 § 14. Clause (F) of subparagraph (ix) of paragraph 2 of subdivision 36 (d) of section 1089 of the family court act, subparagraph (ix) as relet-37 tered by section thirteen of this act, is REPEALED.

38 § 15. Subparagraphs 4, 5 and 6 of paragraph (b) of subdivision 3 of 39 section 358-a of the social services law, as added by chapter 7 of the 40 laws of 1999, are amended to read as follows:

41 (4) the parent of such child has been convicted of assault in the 42 second degree as defined in section 120.05, assault in the first degree
43 as defined in section 120.10 or aggravated assault upon a person less 44 than eleven years old as defined in section 120.12 of the penal law, and 45 the commission of one of the foregoing crimes resulted in serious phys-
46 ical injury to the child or another child of the parent; or

47 (5) the parent of such child has been convicted in any other jurisdic-
48 tion of an offense which includes all of the essential elements of any 49 crime specified in subparagraph two, three or four of this paragraph, 50 and the victim of such offense was the child or another child of the 51 parent[~~, or~~

52 ~~(6) the parental rights of the parent to a sibling of such child have~~ 53 ~~been involuntarily terminated,~~
54 ~~unless the court determines that providing reasonable efforts would be~~
55 ~~in the best interests of the child, not contrary to the health and safe-~~ 56 ~~ty of the child, and would likely result in the reunification of the~~ ~~parent and the child in the foreseeable future. The court shall state such findings in its order~~].

§ 16. Subdivision 3 of section 383 of the social services law, as amended by chapter 141 of the laws of 1985, is amended to read as follows:

3. Any adult [~~husband and his adult wife and~~] married couple or any adult unmarried person, who, as foster parent or parents, have cared for a child continuously for a period of twelve months or more, may apply to such authorized agency for the placement of said child with them for the purpose of adoption, and if said child is eligible for adoption, the agency shall give preference and first consideration to their application over all other applications by non-relatives of the child for adoption placements. However, final determination of the propriety of said adoption of such foster child shall be within the sole discretion of the court, as otherwise provided herein and under section one hundred eleven of the domestic relations law.

~~[Foster parents having had continuous care of a child, for more than twelve months, through an authorized agency, shall be permitted as a matter of right, as an interested party to intervene in any proceeding involving the custody of the child. Such intervention may be made anonymously or in the true name of said foster parents.]~~

§ 17. Subdivision 1 of section 384-b of the social services law, as amended by chapter 312 of the laws of 2002, is amended to read as follows:

1. Statement of legislative findings and intent.

(a) The legislature recognizes that the health and safety of children is of paramount importance. To the extent it is consistent with the health and safety of the child, the legislature further hereby finds that:

(i) it is desirable for children to grow up with a [~~normal~~] family life in a permanent home and that such circumstance offers the best opportunity for children to develop and thrive;

(ii) it is generally desirable for the child to remain with or be returned to the birth parent because the child's need for a [~~normal~~] family life will usually best be met in the home of its birth parent, and that parents are entitled to bring up their own children unless the best interests of the child would be thereby endangered;

(iii) the state's first obligation is to help the family with services to prevent its break-up or to reunite it if the child has already left home; and

(iv) when it is clear that the birth parent cannot or will not provide a [~~normal~~] safe family home for the child and when continued foster care is not an appropriate plan for the child, then a permanent alternative home should be sought for the child;

(v) when a child cannot grow up in the home of a parent, the child's family and community connections remain important to the child's well-being, including connections to their parents, siblings, extended family members, and members of communities into which the child was born; and

(vi) permanently severing a child's legal relationship to a parent is an extreme measure that should only be taken when it has been determined that there is no alternative that would serve the interests of the child.

(b) The legislature further finds that many children who have been placed in foster care experience unnecessarily protracted stays in such care [~~without being adopted or returned to their parents or other custodians~~]. Such unnecessary stays may deprive these children of positive,

1 nurturing family relationships and have deleterious effects on their 2 development into responsible, productive citizens. The legislature 3 further finds that when children are unable to return home to their 4 parents, provision of a timely procedure for [~~the termination, in appro-~~ 5 ~~priate cases, of the rights of the birth parents~~] developing alternative 6 permanency plans could reduce such unnecessary stays.

7 It is the intent of the legislature in enacting this section to 8 provide procedures not only assuring that the rights of the birth parent 9 are protected, but also, where positive, nurturing parent-child 10 relationships no longer exist, furthering the best interests, needs, and 11 rights of the child by place the child in the custody or guardianship of 12 a relative or other suitable person or terminating parental rights and 13 freeing the child for adoption.

14 § 18. Paragraph (i) of subdivision 3 of section 384-b of the social 15 services law is REPEALED.

16 § 19. Subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (1) of subdivision 3 of section 17 384-b of the social services law, as amended by chapter 145 of the laws 18 of 2000, is amended to read as follows:

19 (ii) For the purposes of this section, a compelling reason whereby a 20 social services official is not required to file a petition for termi-21 nation of parental rights in accordance with subparagraph (i) of this 22 paragraph includes, but is not limited to, where:

23 (A) the child was placed into foster care pursuant to article three or 24 seven of the family court act and a review of the specific facts and 25 circumstances of the child's placement demonstrate that the appropriate 26 permanency goal for the child is either to:

27 (1) return such child to [~~his or her~~] such child's parent or guardian 28 [~~or~~];

29 (2) discharge such child to the custody or guardian of a relative or 30 other suitable person; or

31 (3) discharge such child to independent living;

32 (B) the child has a permanency goal other than adoption;

33 (C) the child is fourteen years of age or older and will not consent 34 to [~~his or her~~] such child's adoption;

35 (D) a potential adoptive parent has not been identified and there is 36 not a basis to find that it is likely a potential adoptive parent will 37 be identified;

38 (E) the agency has not yet met with the caregiver for the child to 39 discuss guardianship as an alternative to adoption;

40 (F) there are insufficient grounds for filing a petition to terminate 41 parental rights; [~~or~~

42 (E)] (G) the child is the subject of a pending disposition under arti-43 cle ten of the family court act, except where such child is already in 44 the custody of the commissioner of social services as a result of a 45 proceeding other than the pending article ten proceeding, and a review 46 of the specific facts and circumstances of the child's placement demon-47 strate that the appropriate permanency goal for the child is discharge 48 to [~~his or her~~] such child's parent or guardian; or

49 (H) the respondent is in foster care or was in foster care at the time 50 that the child entered the care of the authorized agency.

51 § 20. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 5 of section 384-b of the social 52 services law, as added by chapter 666 of the laws of 1976, is amended to 53 read as follows:

54 (b) The subjective intent of the parent, whether expressed or other-55 wise, unsupported by evidence of the foregoing parental acts manifesting 56 such intent, shall not preclude a determination that such parent has

1 abandoned [~~his or her~~] such parent's child. In making such determi-2 nation, the court shall [~~not~~] require a showing [~~of diligent efforts, if~~ 3 ~~any, by an authorized agency to encourage the parent to perform the acts~~ 4 ~~specified in paragraph (a) of this subdivision]~~ that the authorized 5 agency made affirmative efforts to locate and contact the parent within 6 the six-month abandonment period.

7 § 21. Subdivision 6 of section 384-b of the social services law is 8 amended by adding a new paragraph (c-1) to read as follows:

9 (c-1) In every proceeding upon a ground set forth in paragraph (c) of 10 subdivision four of this section, the agency shall demonstrate that it 11 has made diligent efforts to encourage and strengthen the parental 12 relationship, including efforts to rehabilitate the respondent, when 13 such efforts will not be detrimental to the best interests of the child, 14 and such efforts have been unsuccessful and are unlikely to be success-
 15 ful in the foreseeable future. Where a court has previously determined 16 in accordance with this chapter or the family court act that reasonable 17 efforts to make it possible for the child to return safely to such 18 child's home are not required, the agency shall not be required to 19 demonstrate diligent efforts as set forth in this section.

20 § 22. Paragraphs (e) and (f) of subdivision 7 of section 384-b of the 21 social services law, as amended by chapter 911 of the laws of 1983 and 22 subparagraph (i) of paragraph (e) and subparagraphs 4 and 5 of paragraph 23 (f) as amended and subparagraph 6 of paragraph (f) as added by chapter 24 113 of the laws of 2010, are amended to read as follows:

25 (e) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivi-26 sion, evidence of diligent efforts by an agency to encourage and 27 strengthen the parental relationship shall not be required when:

28 (i) The parent has failed for a period of six months to keep the agen-29 cy apprised of [~~his or her~~] their location, provided that the court may 30 consider the particular delays or barriers an incarcerated parent or 31 parents, [~~or~~] a parent or parents participating in a residential 32 substance abuse treatment program, or a parent or parents with limited 33 financial resources and access to technology may experience in keeping 34 the agency apprised of [~~his or her~~] their location; or

35 (ii) An incarcerated parent has regularly failed [~~on more than one~~ 36 ~~occasion~~] while incarcerated to cooperate with an authorized agency in 37 its efforts to assist such parent to plan for the future of the child, 38 as such phrase is defined in paragraph (c) of this subdivision, or in 39 such agency's efforts to plan and arrange visits with the child as 40 described in subparagraph [~~five~~] six of paragraph (f) of this subdivi-41 sion.

42 (f) As used in this subdivision, "diligent efforts" shall mean 43 [~~reasonable~~] affirmative, repeated, and meaningful attempts by an 44 authorized agency to assist, develop and encourage a meaningful 45 relationship between the parent and child, including but not limited to:

46 (1) consultation and cooperation with the parents in developing a plan 47 for appropriate services to the child and [~~his~~] such child's family;

48 (2) making suitable arrangements for the parents to visit the child 49 except that with respect to an incarcerated parent, arrangements for the 50 incarcerated parent to visit the child outside the correctional facility 51 shall not be required unless reasonably feasible and in the best inter-52 est of the child;

53 (3) provision of services and other assistance to the parents, 54 [~~except~~] including incarcerated parents to the extent services can be 55 made available to the incarcerated parent, so that problems preventing 56 the discharge of the child from care may be resolved or ameliorated;

1 (4) informing the parents at regular and appropriate intervals of the 2 child's progress, development and health;

3 (5) encouraging the parents' involvement with the child's education
4 and medical care and supporting the parents in exercising their educa-5 tional and medical decision-making rights as to the child unless a court 6 has appointed an educational or medical surrogate for the child;

7 (6) making suitable arrangements with a correctional facility and 8 other appropriate persons for an incarcerated parent to visit the child 9 within the correctional facility, [~~if~~] unless such visiting is [~~in~~] 10 contrary to the best interests of the child. When no visitation between 11 child and incarcerated parent has been arranged for or permitted by the 12 authorized agency because such visitation is determined not to be in the 13 best interest of the child, then no permanent neglect proceeding under 14 this subdivision shall be initiated on the basis of the lack of such 15 visitation. Such arrangements shall include, but shall not be limited 16 to, the transportation of the child to the correctional facility, and 17 providing or suggesting social or rehabilitative services to resolve or 18 correct the problems other than incarceration itself which impair the 19 incarcerated parent's ability to maintain contact with the child. When 20 the parent is incarcerated in a correctional facility located outside 21 the state, the provisions of this subparagraph shall be construed to 22 require that an authorized agency make such arrangements with the 23 correctional facility only if reasonably feasible and permissible in 24 accordance with the laws and regulations applicable to such facility; 25 and

26 [~~(6)~~] (7) providing information which the authorized agency shall 27 obtain from the office of children and family services, outlining the 28 legal rights and obligations of a parent who is incarcerated or in a 29 residential substance abuse treatment program whose child is in custody 30 of an authorized agency, and on social or rehabilitative services avail-31 able in the community, including family visiting services, to aid in the 32 development of a meaningful relationship between the parent and child.
33 Wherever possible, such information shall include transitional and fami-34 ly support services located in the community to which an incarcerated 35 parent or parent participating in a residential substance abuse treat-36 ment program shall return.

37 § 23. Paragraph (d) of subdivision 1 of section 111 of the domestic 38 relations law, as amended by chapter 828 of the laws of 2022, is amended 39 to read as follows:

40 (d) Of any person or authorized agency having lawful custody or guar-41 dianship of the adoptive child, unless, in the case of the adoption of a 42 child transferred to the custody and guardianship of an authorized agen-43 cy pursuant to section three hundred eighty-four-b of the social 44 services law or section three hundred eighty-three-c of the social 45 services law, the court finds that it would be in the child's best 46 interests to be adopted by an individual or couple other than the adop-47 tive resource approved by the agency, in which case the court may order 48 the child's adoption by that individual or couple over the agency's 49 objection;

50 § 24. This act shall take effect immediately.
