Introduced by Sen. GOUNARDES -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Internet and Technology

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to requiring certain security features and warning labels on baby monitors

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 399-iii to read as follows:

§ 399-iii. Baby monitors. 1. As used in this section, "baby monitor" means a device that is marketed exclusively for the purpose of broadcasting audio or video of an infant or child. The term shall not include a multi-functional device such as a smart phone, digital video camera, security camera, or other similar device.

2. (a) No person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation shall manufacture, distribute, sell or offer for sale a new baby monitor that broadcasts audio or video through an internet connection unless it includes: (i) security features to prevent unauthorized users from hearing or viewing activity; and (ii) a label or notice warning consumers of the risks associated with an unsecured baby monitor connection, and the importance of using its security features.

(b) The label or notice required by paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall be displayed in a written, printed, or graphic manner on the box, container, or package of a baby monitor, or shall otherwise accompany the baby monitor at the time of its distribution or sale in type no less than size twelve-point font. The information on the label shall be conspicuous and easily understandable to consumers and be substantially similar to the following:

"WARNING! THIS PRODUCT CONNECTS TO THE INTERNET. TO PREVENT UNAUTHORIZED USERS FROM ACCESSING OR VIEWING PRODUCT ACTIVITY, USE THE SECURITY FEATURES PROVIDED."

3. Manufacturers shall be responsible for ensuring that all baby monitors have the security features to prevent unauthorized users from hearing or viewing activities and the warning label as required by subdivision two of this section.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD09221-03-6

1 4. Any person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation in
2 violation of this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of not
3 more than two hundred fifty dollars for a first violation and not more
4 than five hundred dollars for a second or subsequent violation of this
5 section. The provisions of this section shall be enforced concurrently
6 by the director or commissioner of a municipal consumer affairs office,
7 or by the town attorney, city corporation counsel, or other lawful
8 designee of a municipal or local government, and all moneys collected
9 thereunder shall be retained by such municipality or local government.

10 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 11 have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or 12 repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of 13 this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed
14 on or before such effective date.
