2 prior to commencing an adoption proceeding may adopt another person; 3 provided, however, that the person so adopted shall not be deemed the 4 child or step-child of the non-adopting spouse for the purposes of 5 inheritance or support rights or obligations or for any other purposes.
6 An adult or minor married couple together may adopt a child of either of 11 An adult married person who has executed a legally enforceable separa-12 tion agreement or is a party to a marriage in which a valid decree of 13 separation has been entered or has been living separate and apart from 14 [~~his or her~~] their spouse for at least three years prior to commencing 15 an adoption proceeding and who becomes or has been the custodian of a 16 child placed in their care as a result of court ordered foster care may 17 apply to such authorized agency for placement of said child with them 18 for the purpose of adoption. Final determination of the propriety of 19 said adoption of such foster child, however, shall be within the sole 20 discretion of the court, as otherwise provided herein.

21 Adoption is the legal proceeding whereby a person takes another person 22 into the relation of child and thereby acquires the rights and incurs 23 the responsibilities of parent in respect of such other person.

24 A proceeding conducted in pursuance of this article shall constitute a 25 judicial proceeding. An order of adoption or abrogation made therein by 26 a surrogate or by a judge shall have the force and effect of and shall 27 be entitled to all the presumptions attaching to a judgment rendered by 28 a court of general jurisdiction in a common law action.

29 No adoption heretofore lawfully made shall be abrogated by the enact-30 ment of this article. All such adoptions shall have the effect of lawful 31 adoptions hereunder.

33 inheriting from the adoptive parent applies to any will, devise or trust 34 made or created before June twenty-fifth, eighteen hundred seventy-35 three, nor alters, changes or interferes with such will, devise or 36 trust. As to any such will, devise or trust a minor adopted before that 37 date is not an heir so as to alter estates or trusts or devises in wills 38 so made or created. Nothing in this article in regard to an adult 39 adopted pursuant hereto inheriting from the adoptive parent applies to 40 any will, devise or trust made or created before April twenty-second, 41 nineteen hundred fifteen, nor alters, changes or interferes with such 42 will, devise or trust. As to any such will, devise or trust an adult so 43 adopted is not an heir so as to alter estates or trusts or devises in 44 wills so made or created.

45 It shall be unlawful to preclude a prospective adoptive parent or 46 parents solely on the basis that the adoptor or adopters has had, or has 47 cancer, or any other disease. Nothing herein shall prevent the rejection 48 of a prospective applicant based upon [~~his or her~~] their poor health or 49 limited life expectancy.

50 A petition to adopt, pursuant to the terms of this article, where the 51 petitioner's parentage is legally-recognized under New York State law 52 shall not be denied solely on the basis that the petitioner's parentage 53 is already legally-recognized.

54 § 3. Article 7 of the domestic relations law is amended by adding a 55 new title 5 to read as follows:

TITLE VCONFIRMATORY ADOPTIONS

Section 118. General provisions relating to confirmatory adoption.

119. Order of confirmatory adoption.

120. Effect of confirmatory adoption.

§ 118. General provisions relating to confirmatory adoption. 1. Whenever a child is born as a result of assisted reproduction and the person or persons who did not give birth is a parent under section 581-303 of the family court act or a presumed parent of the child under section five hundred eighty-three of the family court act and the parents seek to file a petition to confirm parentage through an adoption of the child, the court shall permit the parents to file a petition for adoption in accordance with this title.

2. Notwithstanding section one hundred fifteen of this article or any provision of law to the contrary, a petition for confirmatory adoption shall be signed by each petitioner under oath and shall include the following:

(a) A petition for confirmatory adoption, signed by all petitioners;
and

(b) A copy of the petitioners' marriage certificate, if any of the petitioners are married; and

(c) A declaration signed by all petitioners explaining the circumstances of the child's birth through assisted reproduction, attesting to their consent to assisted reproduction, and attesting that no competing claims of parentage exist; and

(d) A certified copy of the child's birth certificate.

3. Notwithstanding section one hundred fifteen of this article or any provision of law to the contrary, submission of a complete petition under this section constitutes notice of and written consent to the confirmatory adoption and the court may not require any additional notice to or consent by any petitioner.

4. Notwithstanding sections one hundred eleven, one hundred eleven-a, one hundred fifteen, and one hundred fifteen-b of this article or any provision of law to the contrary, if a petitioner under this section conceived through assisted reproduction using a donor who is not a parent pursuant to section 581-302 of the family court act, the court may not require notice of the confirmatory adoption to that donor or the consent of that donor to the confirmatory adoption.

5. Unless otherwise ordered by the court for good cause shown and supported by written findings of the court demonstrating good cause, for purposes of evaluating and granting a petition for confirmatory adoption pursuant to this section, the court shall not require:

(b) Certification pursuant to section one hundred fifteen-d of this article or any of the requirements included therein, including but not limited to an investigation or criminal background check; or

(c) Orders of investigation, waiting periods, or any other requirements included in section one hundred sixteen of this article; or

(d) A best interest assessment pursuant to section one hundred fourteen or one hundred sixteen of this article; or

(e) A minimum residency period in the home of the petitioners.

§ 119. Order of confirmatory adoption. 1. The court shall grant the confirmatory adoption petition under section one hundred eighteen of this title and issue an adoption decree within thirty days upon finding that either:

1 (a) The child was born through assisted reproduction to parents joined 2 in marriage, one of the petitioners gave birth to the child, and there 3 are no competing claims of parentage; or 4 (b) The child was born through assisted reproduction with the consent 5 of all petitioners, one of the petitioners gave birth to the child, and 6 the other petitioner or petitioners are parents under section 581-303 of 7 the family court act or presumed parents of the child under section five 8 hundred eighty-three of the family court act, and there are no competing 9 claims of parentage.

10 2. A petition to adopt a child pursuant to section one hundred eigh-11 teen of this title shall not be denied on the basis that any of the 12 petitioners' parentage is already presumed or legally-recognized in New 13 York, nor shall a petition be denied on the basis that there are more 14 than two petitioners.

15 § 120. Effect of confirmatory adoption. 1. An order of confirmatory 16 adoption shall include all effects of adoption under section one hundred 17 seventeen of this article except that the termination of the parental 18 duties and responsibilities, and rights over the child or to property by 19 descent or succession of an existing parent or parents shall not apply 20 if such termination would be inconsistent with the order of confirmatory 21 adoption.

22 2. When parentage is presumed or legally-recognized under state law, 23 the fact that a party did not petition for adoption shall not be consid-24 ered as evidence when two or more presumptions conflict, nor in deter-25 mining the best interest of the child.

26 § 4. Subdivision (a) of section 70 of the domestic relations law, as 27 amended by chapter 457 of the laws of 1988, is amended to read as 28 follows:

29 (a) Where a minor child is residing within this state, [~~either~~ any 30 parent may apply to the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus to 31 have such minor child brought before such court; and on the return ther-32 eof, the court, on due consideration, may award the natural guardian-33 ship, charge and custody of such child to [~~either~~ any parent for such 34 time, under such regulations and restrictions, and with such provisions 35 and directions, as the case may require, and may at any time thereafter 36 vacate or modify such order. In all cases there shall be no prima facie 37 right to the custody of the child in [~~either~~ any parent, but the court 38 shall determine solely what is for the best interest of the child, based 39 on factors listed in paragraphs one, two, three and four of subdivision 40 (a) of section five hundred eighty-six of the family court act, and what 41 will best promote [~~its~~ the child's welfare and happiness, and make 42 award accordingly. Where a court deems it to be in the child's best 43 interest, based on factors listed in paragraphs one, two, three and four 44 of subdivision (a) of section five hundred eighty-six of the family 45 court act, the court may award custody to more than two parents.

46 § 5. Section 24 of the domestic relations law is REPEALED.

47 § 6. Section 417 of the family court act is REPEALED.

48 § 7. The family court act is amended by adding a new article 5-D to 49 read as follows:

50 ARTICLE 5-D

51 PRESUMED PARENTAGE

52 Section 582. Definitions.

53 583. Presumption of parentage.

54 584. Challenge to a presumed parent.

55 585. Adjudicating parentage of child with presumed parent.

56 586. Adjudicating competing claims of parentage.

1 587. Preservation of parent-child relationship.

2 § 582. Definitions. In this article:

3 (a) "Marriage" means the legally recognized union of two people or any 4 legal relationship between two people that provides substantially the 5 same rights, benefits, and responsibilities of marriage and is recog-6 nized as valid in the state or jurisdiction in which it was entered, 7 including, but not limited to, civil unions.

8 (b) "Parent" shall have the same meaning as in section 581-102 of this 9 act.

10 (c) "Presumed parent" means an individual who under section 583 of 11 this act is presumed to be a parent of a child, unless the presumption 12 is overcome in a judicial proceeding, or a court adjudicates the indi-13 vidual to be a parent.

14 § 583. Presumption of parentage. (a) An individual is presumed to be a 15 parent of a child if:

16 (1) Except as otherwise provided under section 581-406 of this act:

17 (i) the individual and the person who gave birth to the child are 18 married to each other and the child is born during the marriage, regard-19 less of whether the marriage is or could be declared invalid; or 20 (ii) the individual and the person who gave birth to the child were 21 married to each other and the child is born not later than three hundred 22 days after the marriage is terminated by death, divorce, dissolution, 23 annulment, or declaration of invalidity, regardless of whether the 24 marriage is or could be declared invalid; or

25 (iii) the individual and the person who gave birth to the child 26 married each other after the birth of the child, regardless of whether 27 the marriage is or could be declared invalid, the individual at any time 28 asserted parentage of the child, and:

29 (A) The assertion is in a record filed with a state or city agency 30 maintaining birth records; or

31 (B) The individual agreed to be and is named as a parent of the child 32 on the birth certificate of the child; or

33 (iv) the individual resided in the same household with the child and 34 openly held out the child as the individual's own child for a period of 35 at least one year, including any period of temporary absence.

36 (b) A presumption of parentage under this section may be overcome, and 37 competing claims to parentage may be resolved only by an adjudication 38 under section five hundred eighty-four or five hundred eighty-six of 39 this article.

40 § 584. Challenge to a presumed parent. During a child's minority, an 41 existing parent of the child may challenge a presumption of parentage 42 under subparagraph (iv) of paragraph one of subdivision (a) of section 43 five hundred eighty-three of this article with evidence that the parent 44 openly held out the child as the presumptive parent's child due to 45 duress, coercion, or threat of harm.

46 § 585. Adjudicating parentage of child with presumed parent. (a) A 47 civil proceeding may be maintained to adjudicate the parentage of a 48 child under the circumstances set forth in this article. This proceeding 49 shall be governed by the civil practice law and rules.

50 (b) A proceeding to adjudicate parentage of a presumed parent of a 51 child shall be commenced before the child turns twenty-one years old.

52 (c) A petition for a judgment of parentage or nonparentage of a child 53 with a presumed parent may be initiated by:

54 (1) a child, who may be, but is not required to be, a party to the 55 proceeding; or

56 (2) a parent; or

1 (3) a presumed parent.

2 (d) If the presumed parent and the person who gave birth to the child 3 are the only individuals with claims to parentage of the child, and if 4 no party to the proceeding challenges the presumed parent's parentage of 5 the child, the court shall adjudicate the presumed parent to be a parent 6 of the child.

7 (e) If any party to the proceeding challenges the presumption of 8 parentage pursuant to section five hundred eighty-four of this article, 9 the court shall adjudicate the parentage of the child in the best inter-10 est of the child based on the factors listed in paragraphs one, two, 11 three and four of subdivision (a) of section five hundred eighty-six of 12 this article.

13 (f) If in a proceeding to adjudicate a presumed parent's parentage of 14 a child, another individual in addition to the person who gave birth to 15 the child asserts a claim to parentage of the child, the court shall 16 adjudicate parentage under sections five hundred eighty-six and five 17 hundred eighty-seven of this article and issue judgments of parentage 18 and/or nonparentage in accordance with its findings.

19 § 586. Adjudicating competing claims of parentage. (a) In a proceeding 20 to adjudicate competing claims of parentage of a child by two or more 21 individuals, the court shall adjudicate parentage in the best interest 22 of the child, based on:

23 (1) the age of the child; and 24 (2) the length of time during which each individual assumed the role 25 of parent of the child; and 26 (3) the nature of the relationship between the child and each individ-27 ual; and

28 (4) the harm to the child if the relationship between the child and 29 each individual is not recognized; and 30 (5) the basis for each individual's claim to parentage of the child; 31 and

32 (6) other equitable factors arising from the disruption of the 33 relationship between the child and each individual or the likelihood of 34 other harm to the child.

35 § 587. Preservation of parent-child relationship. (a) A court may 36 adjudicate a child to have more than two parents if the court finds that 37 such adjudication is in the best interest of the child. A finding of the 38 best interest of the child shall not require a finding of unfitness of 39 any parent or person seeking an adjudication of parentage. In determin-40 ing the best interest of the child, the court shall consider all rele-41 vant factors, including factors listed in paragraphs one, two, three and 42 four of subdivision (a) of section five hundred eighty-six of this arti-43 cle, and the intention of parents to raise a child together, including a 44 pre-conception agreement to parent or agreement to parent at any other 45 point in the child's life.

46 (b) If a court has adjudicated a child to have more than two parents, 47 the law of this state other than this act applies to determinations of 48 legal and physical custody of, or visitation with, such child, and to 49 obligations to support such child. A court of competent jurisdiction 50 shall consider the child support guidelines and the criteria for such 51 awards established in section two hundred forty-b of the domestic 52 relations law and section four hundred thirteen of this act in making or 53 modifying orders of support of the child.

54 § 8. Subdivision (c) of section 516-a of the family court act, as 55 amended by section 15 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 2020, is 56 amended to read as follows:

1 (c) An acknowledgment of parentage is void if, at the time of signing,
2 any of the following are true:

4 child pursuant to [~~section twenty-four of the domestic relations law~~] 5 section five hundred eighty-three of this act;

7 (iii) another person has signed a valid acknowledgment of parentage
8 with regard to the child;

9 (iv) the child has a parent pursuant to section 581-303 of [~~the family 10 court~~] this act other than the signatories;

11 (v) a signatory is a gamete donor under section 581-302 of [~~the family 12 court~~] this act; or

13 (vi) the acknowledgment is signed by a person who asserts that they 14 are a parent under section 581-303 of [~~the family court~~] this act of a 15 child conceived through assisted reproduction, but the child was not 16 conceived through assisted reproduction.

17 § 9. Paragraph (d) of subdivision 1 of section 4135-b of the public 18 health law, as added by section 8 of part L of chapter 56 of the laws of 19 2020, is amended to read as follows:

20 (d) An acknowledgment of parentage is void if, at the time of signing,
21 any of the following are true:

22 (i) A person other than the signatories is a presumed parent of the 23 child under [~~section twenty-four of the domestic relations law~~] section 24 five hundred eighty-three of the family court act;

25 (ii) A court has entered a judgment of parentage of the child;

26 (iii) Another person has signed a valid acknowledgment of parentage
27 with regard to the child;

28 (iv) The child has a parent under section 581-303 of the family court 29 act other than the signatories;

30 (v) A signatory is a gamete donor under section 581-302 of the family 31 court act;

32 (vi) The acknowledgment is signed by a person who asserts that they 33 are a parent under section 581-303 of the family court act of a child 34 conceived through assisted reproduction, but the child was not conceived 35 through assisted reproduction.

36 § 10. Subparagraphs 2 and 4 of paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of 37 section 413 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 567 of the 38 laws of 1989, are amended to read as follows:

39 (2) "Child support" shall mean a sum to be paid pursuant to court 40 order or decree by [~~either or both~~] one or more parents or pursuant to a 41 valid agreement between the parties for care, maintenance and education 42 of any unemancipated child under the age of twenty-one years.

43 (4) "Combined parental income" shall mean the sum of the income of 44 [~~both~~] all parents.

45 § 11. Clause (vi) of subparagraph 5 of paragraph (c) of subdivision 1 46 of section 413 of the family court act, as added by chapter 215 of the 47 laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:

48 (vi) Upon proof by [~~either~~] any party that cash medical support pursu-49 ant to clause (ii), (iii), (iv) or (v) of this subparagraph would be 50 unjust or inappropriate pursuant to paragraph (f) of subdivision one of 51 this section, the court shall:

52 (A) order the parties to pay cash medical support as the court finds 53 just and appropriate, considering the best interests of the child; and 54 (B) set forth in the order the factors it considered, the amount 55 calculated under this subparagraph, the reason or reasons the court did 56 not order such amount, and the basis for the amount awarded.

1 § 12. Subparagraphs 6 and 7 of paragraph (f) of subdivision 1 of 2 section 413 of the family court act, as amended by chapter 567 of the 3 laws of 1989, are amended to read as follows:

4 (6) The educational needs of [~~either~~] any parent;

5 (7) A determination that the gross income of one or more parent is 6 substantially less than [~~the other~~] another parent's gross income;

7 § 13. Paragraphs (g), (i) and (j) of subdivision 1 of section 413 of 8 the family court act, paragraphs (g) and (i) as amended by chapter 436 9 of the laws of 2011 and paragraph (j) as amended by chapter 59 of the 10 laws of 1993, are amended to read as follows:

11 (g) Where the court finds that the non-custodial parent's pro rata 12 share of the basic child support obligation is unjust or inappropriate, 13 the court shall order the non-custodial parent to pay such amount of 14 child support as the court finds just and appropriate, and the court 15 shall set forth, in a written order, the factors it considered; the 16 amount of each party's pro rata share of the basic child support obli-17 gation; and the reasons that the court did not order the basic child 18 support obligation. Such written order may not be waived by [~~either~~] any 19 party or counsel; provided, however, and notwithstanding any other 20 provision of law, including but not limited to section four hundred 21 fifteen of this part, the court shall not find that the non-custodial 22 parent's pro rata share of such obligation is unjust or inappropriate on 23 the basis that such share exceeds the portion of a public assistance 24 grant which is attributable to a child or children. Where the non-custo-25 dial parent's income is less than or equal to the poverty income guide-26 lines amount for a single person as reported by the federal department 27 of health and human services, unpaid child support arrears in excess of 28 five hundred dollars shall not accrue.

29 (i) Where [~~either or both~~] any of the parties are unrepresented, the 30 court shall not enter an order or judgment other than a temporary order 31 pursuant to section two hundred thirty-seven of the domestic relations 32 law, that includes a provision for child support unless the unrepres-33 ented party or parties have received a copy of the child support stand-34 ards chart promulgated by the commissioner of the office of temporary 35 and disability assistance pursuant to subdivision two of section one 36 hundred eleven-i of the social services law. Where [~~either~~] any party is 37 in receipt of child support enforcement services through the local 38 social services district, the local social services district child 39 support enforcement unit shall advise such party or parties of the 40 amount derived from application of the child support percentage and that 41 such amount serves as a starting point for the determination of the 42 child support award, and shall provide such party or parties with a copy 43 of the child support standards chart.

44 (j) In addition to financial disclosure required in section four 45 hundred twenty-four-a of this article, the court may require that the 46 income and/or expenses of [~~either~~] any party be verified with documenta-47 tion including, but not limited to, past and present income tax returns, 48 employer statements, pay stubs, corporate, business, or partnership 49 books and records, corporate and business tax returns, and receipts for 50 expenses or such other means of verification as the court determines 51 appropriate. Nothing herein shall affect any party's right to pursue 52 discovery pursuant to this chapter, the civil practice law and rules, or 53 the family court act.

54 § 14. Paragraph a and the opening paragraph and subparagraph 1 of 55 paragraph b of subdivision 3 of section 413 of the family court act, as

1 amended by chapter 398 of the laws of 1997, are amended to read as 2 follows:

3 a. One-time adjustment of child support orders issued prior to Septem-4 ber fifteenth, nineteen hundred eighty-nine. Any party to a child 5 support order issued prior to September fifteenth, nineteen hundred 6 eighty-nine on the behalf of a child in receipt of public assistance or 7 child support services pursuant to section one hundred eleven-g of the 8 social services law may request that the support collection unit under-9 take one review of the order for adjustment purposes pursuant to section 10 one hundred eleven-h of the social services law. A hearing on the 11 adjustment of such order shall be granted upon the objection of [~~either~~] 12 any party pursuant to the provisions of this section. An order shall be 13 adjusted if as of the date of the support collection unit's review of 14 the correct amount of child support as calculated pursuant to the 15 provisions of this section would deviate by at least ten percent from 16 the child support ordered in the last permanent support order of the 17 court. Additionally, a new support order shall be issued upon a showing 18 that the current order of support does not provide for the health care 19 needs of the child through insurance or otherwise. Eligibility of the 20 child for medical assistance shall not relieve any obligation the 21 parties otherwise have to provide for the health care needs of the 22 child. The support collection unit's review of a child support order 23 shall be made on notice to all parties to the current support order and 24 shall be subject to the provisions of section four hundred twenty-four-a 25 of this article. Nothing herein shall be deemed in any way to limit, 26 restrict, expand or impair the rights of any party to file for a modifi-27 cation of a child support order as is otherwise provided by law.

28 Upon receipt of an adjustment finding and where appropriate a proposed 29 order in conformity with such finding filed by [~~either~~ any party or by 30 the support collection unit, a party shall have thirty-five days from 31 the date of mailing of the adjustment finding and proposed adjusted 32 order, if any, to submit to the court identified thereon specific writ-
