16 rape in the third degree as defined in subdivision one, two, three,
17 seven, eight or nine of section 130.25 of the penal law, or a crime
18 formerly defined in section 130.50 of the penal law, or a crime formerly 19 defined in subdivision two of section 130.45 of the penal law, or a 20 crime formerly defined in subdivision one or three of section 130.40 of 21 the penal law, or incest in the first degree as defined in section 22 255.27 of the penal law, or incest in the second degree as defined in 23 section 255.26 of the penal law (where the crime committed is rape in 24 the second degree as defined in subdivision four, five or six of section 25 130.30 of the penal law, or rape in the second degree as formerly
26 defined in subdivision two of section 130.30 of the penal law, or a 27 crime formerly defined in subdivision two of section 130.45 of the penal 28 law), or aggravated sexual abuse in the first degree as defined in 29 section 130.70 of the penal law, or course of sexual conduct against a 30 child in the first degree as defined in section 130.75 of the penal law 31 may be brought against any party whose intentional or negligent acts or 32 omissions are alleged to have resulted in the commission of the said 33 conduct, within twenty years.

34 (b) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section, 35 or any other provision of law to the contrary, all civil claims or caus-
36 es of action brought by any person for physical, psychological or other 37 injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would consti- 38 tute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of the 39 penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age,
40 incest as defined in section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of the penal law
41 committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of 42 a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the 43 penal law, or a predecessor statute that prohibited such conduct at the 44 time of the act, which conduct was committed against a child less than 45 eighteen years of age, such action may be commenced at any time.

46 (c) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require that a crim-
47 inal charge be brought or a criminal conviction be obtained as a condi-
48 tion of bringing a civil cause of action or receiving a civil judgment 49 pursuant to this section or be construed to require that any of the 50 rules governing a criminal proceeding be applicable to any such civil 51 action.

52 § 3. Section 214-g of the civil practice law and rules, as amended by 53 chapter 130 of the laws of 2020, is amended to read as follows:

54 § 214-g. Certain child sexual abuse cases. Notwithstanding any 55 provision of law which imposes a period of limitation to the contrary 56 and the provisions of any other law pertaining to the filing of a notice

1 of claim or a notice of intention to file a claim as a condition prece-2 dent to commencement of an action or special proceeding, every civil 3 claim or cause of action brought against any party alleging intentional 4 or negligent acts or omissions by a person for physical, psychological, 5 or other injury or condition suffered as a result of conduct which would 6 constitute a sexual offense as defined in article one hundred thirty of 7 the penal law committed against a child less than eighteen years of age,
8 incest as defined in section 255.27, 255.26 or 255.25 of the penal law
9 committed against a child less than eighteen years of age, or the use of 10 a child in a sexual performance as defined in section 263.05 of the 11 penal law, or a predecessor statute that prohibited such conduct at the 12 time of the act, which conduct was committed against a child less than 13 eighteen years of age, which is barred as of the effective date of this 14 section because the applicable period of limitation has expired, and/or 15 the plaintiff previously failed to file a notice of claim or a notice of 16 intention to file a claim, is hereby revived, and action thereon may be 17 commenced not earlier than six months after~~, and not later than two~~ 18 ~~years and six months after~~ the effective date of this section. In any 19 such claim or action: (a) in addition to any other defense and affirma-20 tive defense that may be available in accordance with law, rule or the 21 common law, to the extent that the acts alleged in such action are of 22 the type described in subdivision one of section 130.30 of the penal law 23 or subdivision one of the former section 130.45 of the penal law, the 24 affirmative defenses set forth, respectively, in the closing paragraph 25 of such sections of the penal law shall apply; and (b) dismissal of a 26 previous action, ordered before the effective date of this section, on 27 grounds that such previous action was time barred, and/or for failure of 28 a party to file a notice of claim or a notice of intention to file a 29 claim, shall not be grounds for dismissal of a revival action pursuant 30 to this section.

31 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
