18 of all the parties who appear.

19 3. The trial must take place each court day whenever the court is in 20 session until the conclusion of the trial, and accordingly no other 21 cases should be scheduled on the court's calendar for dates prior to the 22 anticipated conclusion of the trial, except by consent of all the 23 parties who appear or during adjournments pursuant to subdivision one or 24 two of this section.

33 such condition requires immediate access in order to prevent injury to 34 persons or damage to property, in which case notice shall be provided by 35 telephone, email, or by knocking on the tenant or resident's door at a 41 § 7. Section 776 of the real property actions and proceedings law, as 42 added by chapter 909 of the laws of 1965, subdivision b as amended by 43 chapter 877 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows:

44 § 776. Judgment. The court shall render a final judgment either

45 a. Dismissing the petition for failure to affirmatively establish the 46 allegations thereof or because of the affirmative establishment by the 47 owner or a mortgagee or lienor of record of a defense or defenses speci-48 fied in section seven hundred seventy-five of this article; or 49 b. Directing that (1) the rents due on the date of the entry of such 50 judgment from the petitioning tenants and the rents due on the dates of 51 service of the judgment on all other residential and non-residential 52 tenants occupying such dwelling from such other tenants, shall be depos-53 ited with the administrator appointed by the court, pursuant to section 54 seven hundred seventy-eight of this article; (2) any rents to become due 55 in the future from all tenants occupying such dwelling shall be deposit-56 ed with such administrator as they fall due; (3) such deposited rents shall be used, subject to the court's direction, to the extent necessary to remedy the condition or conditions or course of conduct alleged in the petition and (4) upon the completion of such work in accordance with such judgment, any remaining surplus shall be turned over to the owner, together with a complete accounting of the rents deposited and the costs incurred; and granting such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and proper. A certified copy of such judgment shall be served personally, by the administrator appointed by the court pursuant to section seven hundred seventy-eight of this article, upon each non-petitioning tenant occupying such dwelling and ~~[upon the city of New York]~~ the housing standards department by service as provided in subdivision five of section seven hundred seventy-one of this article. If personal service on any such non-petitioning tenant cannot be made with due diligence, service on such tenant shall be made by affixing a certified copy of such judgment on the entrance door of such tenant's apartment, store or other unit and, in addition, within one day after such affixing, by sending a certified copy thereof by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to such tenant. Any right of the owner of such dwelling to collect such rent moneys from any petitioning tenant of such dwelling on or after the date of entry of such judgment, and from any non-petitioning tenant of such dwelling on or after the date of service of such judgment on such non-petitioning tenant as herein provided, shall be void and unenforceable to the extent that such petitioning or non-petitioning tenant, as the case may be, has deposited such moneys with the administrator in accordance with the terms of such judgment, regardless of whether such right of the owner arises from a lease, contract, agreement or understanding heretofore or hereafter made or entered into or arises as a matter of law from the relationship of the parties or otherwise. It shall be a valid defense in any action or proceeding against any such tenant to recover possession of real property for the non-payment of rent or for use or occupation to prove that the rent alleged to be unpaid was deposited with the administrator in accordance with the terms of a judgment entered under this section.

c. Directing the owner to provide written notice to the court, court-appointed administrator, housing standards department, and petitioning tenants within ten days of entering into a contract of sale with a prospective purchaser of the premises.

d. Neither the owner nor a court-appointed administrator shall, without good cause, serve a notice to quit upon any tenant or commence any action to recover real property or summary proceeding to recover possession of real property, or substantially alter the terms of a tenant's lease, including, but not limited to, refusing to continue a tenancy of the tenant upon expiration of the tenant's lease, to renew the lease or offer a new lease, or offering a new lease with a rent increase equal to or greater than five percent above the current lease, within one year of a judgment pursuant to this section; provided, however, that an owner shall not be required under this section to offer a new lease or a lease renewal for a term greater than one year.

§ 8. Section 777 of the real property actions and proceedings law is REPEALED.

§ 9. Section 778 of the real property actions and proceedings law, as amended by chapter 963 of the laws of 1974, subdivisions 1 and 6 as amended and subdivision 11 as added by chapter 455 of the laws of 2013, the opening paragraph of subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 48 of the laws of 2015, subdivision 3 as amended by chapter 305 of the laws of 1978, subdivision 4 as added by chapter 521 of the laws of 1979, subdivision 5 as added by chapter 769 of the laws of 1981, subdivision 7 as added by chapter 737 of the laws of 1985, subdivisions 8 and 9 as added by chapter 95 of the laws of 1989, subdivision 10 as amended by chapter 40 of the laws of 2001, paragraph (a) of subdivision 10 as amended by chapter 387 of the laws of 2003 and paragraph (b) of subdivision 10 as amended by chapter 265 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:

§ 778. Appointment of administrator. 1. The court is authorized and empowered, in implementation of a judgment rendered pursuant to section seven hundred seventy-six [~~or seven hundred seventy-seven~~] of this article, to appoint a person other than the owner, a mortgagee or lienor, to receive and administer the rent moneys or security deposited with such owner, mortgagee or lienor, subject to the court's direction. The court may appoint the [~~commissioner of the department of the city of New York charged with enforcement of the housing maintenance code of such city~~] official charged with managing the housing standards department or the commissioner's designee as such administrator, provided that the commissioner or the commissioner's designee shall consent, in writing, to such appointment. Any administrator is authorized and empowered in accordance with the direction of the court, to order the necessary materials, labor and services to remove or remedy the conditions specified in the judgment, and to make disbursements in payment thereof; and to demand, collect and receive the rents from the tenants; and to institute all necessary legal proceedings including, but not limited to, summary proceedings for the removal of any tenant or tenants; and to rent or lease for terms not exceeding three years any part of said premises, however, the court may direct the administrator to rent or lease commercial parts of said premises for terms that the court may approve. In addition, such administrator is authorized and empowered in accordance with the direction of the court to accept and repay such moneys as may be received from the housing standards department [~~charged with enforcement of the housing maintenance code of the city of New York~~] for the purpose of managing the premises, replacing or substantially rehabilitating systems or making other repairs or capital improvements authorized by the court. All moneys expended by the department pursuant to the foregoing shall constitute a debt recoverable from the owner and a lien upon the building and lot, and upon the rents and other income thereof. Such lien shall be enforced in accordance with the provisions of article eight of subchapter five of the housing maintenance code of the city of New York, or in accordance with any applicable provisions for all other counties. Such administrator, shall, upon completion of the work prescribed in such judgment, file with the court a full accounting of all receipts and expenditures for such work. Such administrator shall dispose of the rents and other monies deposited with such administrator according to the following order of priority:

(a) Payment in full for all of the work specified in the judgment, fuel bills, fire and liability insurance, and bills for ordinary repairs and maintenance, including correcting conditions in violation of the law. Until all of the work specified in the judgment has been completed and payment for such work has been made, no other disbursements shall be permitted[~~, except for fuel bills, fire and liability insurance, and bills for ordinary repairs and maintenance~~].

(b) Payment of a reasonable amount for the services of such administrator, including reimbursement of any legal fees incurred by such administrator in connection with management of the building.

(c) Payment of outstanding real property tax liens claimed by ~~[the city of New York]~~ any municipality or county in which the dwelling is located.

(d) Payment of outstanding emergency repair liens filed and recorded by ~~[the city of New York]~~ any municipality or county in which the dwelling is located and outstanding liens filed and recorded by ~~[the city]~~ such municipality or county pursuant to this section.

(e) Abatements for all tenants of up to twenty-five percent of rent for the period during which the administrator is appointed. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent any tenant from prosecuting a claim in a court of competent jurisdiction for breach of warranty of habitability; however, any resulting relief from such claim will be reduced by the amount of the abatement awarded herein.

(f) Payment to the owner of any surplus remaining after payments of paragraphs (a) through ~~[(d)]~~ (e) of this subdivision have been made.

2. Unless the administrator is the ~~[city of New York]~~ municipality or county, the court may allow from the rent moneys or security on deposit a reasonable amount for services of such administrator.

3. Unless such administrator is the ~~[city of New York]~~ municipality or county, the administrator so appointed shall furnish a bond, the amount and form of which shall be approved by the court. In its discretion and for good cause shown, the court may dispense with the necessity for a bond. The cost of a required bond shall be paid from the moneys so deposited.

4. Such administrator shall file a transcript of the judgment appointing ~~[him]~~ them with the county clerk within fifteen days of ~~[his]~~ their appointment.

5. The duties of such administrator shall not be affected by the appointment of a receiver in an action to foreclose a mortgage on the premises, except that the rights of the owner, including the right to any surplus, pursuant to paragraph ~~[(e)]~~ (f) of subdivision one of this section, shall pass to the receiver. The court in which the action to foreclose a mortgage on the premises is pending may appoint such administrator to serve as receiver in that action in addition to ~~[his]~~ their duties as administrator pursuant to this article.

6. Such administrator shall be liable only in ~~[his or her]~~ such administrator's official capacity for injury to persons and property by reason of conditions of the premises in a case where an owner would have been liable; ~~[he or she]~~ such administrator shall not have any liability in ~~[his or her]~~ such administrator's personal capacity. Appointment of an administrator pursuant to subdivision one of this section shall not relieve an owner of liability for injury to persons and property in such case.

7. No ~~[city]~~ municipality or county specified in section seven hundred sixty-nine of this article shall be liable to any party, including such administrator or the owner, for injury to persons or property by reason of conditions of the premises or the acts or omissions of such administrator, except that when the ~~[city of New York]~~ municipality or county is appointed administrator, liability shall be determined in accordance with subdivision six of this section.

8. The commissioner of the department of the city of New York charged with the enforcement of the housing maintenance code of such city shall promulgate rules and regulations regarding criteria for the selection of administrators to be appointed pursuant to this section and shall establish and maintain a list of organizations and persons approved by such department. If the dwelling is located outside the city of New York,

1 the official charged with management of the housing standards department 2 shall promulgate rules and regulations regarding criteria for the 3 selection of administrators to be appointed pursuant to this section and 4 may establish and maintain a list of organizations and persons approved 5 by such department. Unless the administrator is the ~~[city of New York]~~ 6 municipality or county, any person appointed as an administrator within 7 such city shall be selected from among the organizations and persons 8 approved as administrators pursuant to such list, any organizations or 9 individuals submitted to the court for consideration by the petitioning 10 tenants pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision, and the petition-11 ing tenants deemed to have sufficient knowledge and expertise to serve 12 as the administrator.

13 (a) Where an article seven-A proceeding is initiated by tenants, the 14 petitioning tenants shall have the right to submit to the court a list 15 of three preferred organizations and/or individuals selected from the 16 approved list of administrators provided that, if the tenants find no
17 organization or individual on the list to be suitable, the tenants may 18 nominate organizations or individuals outside of the list, including 19 from among the petitioning tenants, along with a summary of each nomi-
20 nee's experience and credentials, for consideration by the court.

21 (b) Where petitioning tenants have submitted preferred organizations
22 and/or individuals selected from the approved list of administrators,
23 the court must appoint an administrator from among the petitioning
24 tenants' preferred approved administrators absent good cause to the 25 contrary.

26 (c) Where petitioning tenants have not submitted preferred organiza-
27 tions or individuals or where the court declines to appoint an adminis-
28 trator from among the petitioning tenants' preferred administrators or 29 nominees, priority of appointment shall be given to not-for-profit
30 corporations formed for the purpose of preserving or developing afforda-31 ble housing whenever there is no eligible for-profit organization or

51 and shall establish and maintain a list of organizations and persons 52 approved by such department. Any person appointed as an administrator 53 within such municipality shall be selected from among the organizations 54 and persons approved as administrators pursuant to such list, any organ-55 izations or individuals submitted to the court for consideration by the 56 petitioning tenants pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision, and

1 the petitioning tenants deemed to have sufficient knowledge and exper-
2 tise to serve as the administrator. A city, town or village may estab-
3 lish and maintain such list itself or elect to have such list estab-4 lished and maintained by the commissioner of the department charged with 5 enforcement of the housing maintenance code in the county in which a 6 dwelling is located.

7 (a) Where a proceeding under this article is initiated by tenants, the 8 petitioning tenants shall have the right to submit to the court a list 9 of three preferred organizations and/or individuals selected from the 10 approved list of administrators provided that, if the tenants find no
11 organization or individual on the list to be suitable, the tenants may 12 nominate organizations or individuals outside of the list, including 13 from among the petitioning tenants, along with a summary of each nomi-
14 nee's experience and credentials, for consideration by the court.

15 (b) Where petitioning tenants have submitted preferred organizations
16 and/or individuals selected from the approved list of administrators,
17 the court must appoint an administrator from among the petitioning
18 tenants' preferred approved administrators absent good cause to the 19 contrary.

20 (c) Where petitioning tenants have not submitted preferred organiza-
21 tions or individuals or where the court declines to appoint an adminis-
22 trator from among the petitioning tenants' preferred administrators or 23 nominees, priority of appointment shall be given to not-for-profit
24 corporations formed for the purpose of preserving or developing afforda-
25 ble housing whenever there is no eligible for-profit organization or 26 individual that is clearly more competent.

27 9. (a) The administrator shall, within thirty days of appointment, 28 file with the court a plan for the provision of essential services and 29 for the correction of such other hazardous conditions as may exist at 30 the premises, specifying dates by which such services shall be provided 31 and such conditions corrected. If such administrator cannot provide such 32 services and correct such conditions by the dates specified in the plan, 33 ~~[he or she]~~ the administrator shall be required to file with the court 34 an amendment to the plan setting forth the reasons why such services and 35 corrections could not be provided by such date and specifying new dates 36 for such services and corrections. Such plan and any amendments to such 37 plan shall be provided to the tenants by mail or by posting in a common 38 area of the building and to the owner of record by mail.

39 (b) Where an organization has been appointed as the administrator, 40 such administrator shall promptly delegate the responsibilities to a 41 single individual and inform the court of such designation within thirty 42 days. Such person shall remain accountable to the court as the adminis-43 trator's representative until the administrator's discharge.

44 10. (a) The court may only discharge an administrator if the owner
45 makes a prima facie showing that the conditions and course of conduct 46 which required the appointment of the administrator under this article 47 have been cured and that the owner has a detailed plan for the continued 48 maintenance and operation of the dwelling, the owner has paid in full or 49 entered into a payment agreement to pay in full all outstanding real 50 property tax liens claimed by any municipality in which the dwelling is 51 located, all outstanding emergency repair liens filed and recorded by 52 any municipality in which the dwelling is located and all outstanding 53 liens filed and recorded by such municipality or municipalities pursuant 54 to this section.

55 (b) A detailed plan for the continued maintenance of the operations 56 of the dwelling shall include sufficient submissions for the court to

1 evaluate the owner's willingness and ability to make repairs, including 2 specifying the repairs they will undertake, an estimated budget, a time-3 table for doing so, identifying the source of funds for those expendi-4 tures, and balance sheets or income statements.

5 (c) In assessing an owner's fitness for the continued maintenance and 6 operation of the dwelling, the court shall consider the conditions of 7 other properties owned or managed by the owner and shall not discharge 8 the administrator where it is found that the owner operates a separate 9 property or separate properties at a standard which is contrary to 10 public health and safety. The court may rely on the visually displayed 11 or the printed computerized violation files of the department responsi-12 ble for maintaining such files and all other computerized data as shall 13 be relevant to the enforcement of state and local laws for the estab-14 lishment and maintenance of housing standards.

15 11. (a) Where a judgment has been entered pursuant to this section, 16 the municipality must, within six months of such a judgment, certify a 17 finding pursuant to paragraph (c) of subdivision one of section nineteen 18 hundred seventy-one of this chapter.

19 (b) Where a finding of abandonment has been certified, the munici-20 pality may commence a proceeding pursuant to section nineteen hundred 21 seventy-three of this chapter, or, in the alternative, authorize the 22 court-appointed administrator to sell the property to a purchaser 23 approved by the court pursuant to section seven hundred eighty-four of 24 this article.

25 (c) Notice of such authorization must be issued to all owners, mortga-26 gors, lienors and lessees of record pursuant to section nineteen hundred 27 seventy-two of this chapter, as well as to all tenants of the subject 28 building.

29 (d) Any owner, mortgagor, lienor or lessee may challenge the authori-30 zation of sale, provided that the burden of proof is on the challenging 31 party to demonstrate its capacity to resume control of the premises 32 pursuant to this subdivision.

33 § 23. Section 796-k of the real property actions and proceedings law, 34 as amended by chapter 24 of the laws of 2023, is amended to read as 35 follows:

36 § 796-k. Presentation or settlement of accounts. The court shall 37 require the keeping of written accounts itemizing the receipts and 40 this article, which shall be open to inspection by the owner of the 41 dwelling, or any mortgagee or lienor or any other person having an 42 interest in such receipts or expenditures provided, however, that 43 notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, such infor-44 mation as may be in the possession of the department charged with the 45 enforcement of the housing maintenance code of the municipality shall be 46 available from such department for inspection only by the owner of the 47 dwelling, the tenant of the dwelling, or a person having a recorded 48 interest in the property. Upon motion of the court or the administrator 49 or of the owner, any mortgagee or lienor of record or of any person 50 having an interest, or the petitioning tenants, the court may require a 51 presentation or settlement of the accounts with respect thereto. Notice 52 of a motion for presentation or settlement of such accounts shall be 53 served on the owner, any mortgagee or other lienor of record who 54 appeared in the proceeding and [~~any person having an interest in such~~ 55 ~~receipts or expenditures~~] the petitioning tenants.

1 § 24. Section 796-m of the real property actions and proceedings law, 2 as added by chapter 677 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 § 796-m. Defense of warranty of habitability inapplicable. Notwith-
5 standing any other provision of law, in any proceeding for the payment 6 of rent commenced by an administrator appointed pursuant to this arti-7 cle, the provisions of section two hundred thirty-five-b of the real 8 property law pertaining to the warranty of habitability shall not be a 9 defense to such a proceeding for rent which accrues during the period of 10 time that a judgment or an order pursuant to this article is in effect, 11 unless the court determines that the conditions upon which such defense 12 is based were caused by the failure of such administrator to perform 13 ~~[his or her]~~ the administrator's duties in a reasonable manner. The 14 burden of showing performance of duties in a reasonable manner shall be 15 made by the administrator in such summary proceeding.

16 § 25. The real property actions and proceedings law is amended by 17 adding a new section 796-n to read as follows:

19 whereby any provision of this article for the benefit of a tenant, resi-20 dent or occupant of a dwelling is waived, shall be deemed against public 21 policy and shall be void.

22 § 26. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day
23 after it shall have become a law; provided, however, that the amendments 24 to subdivision 10 of section 778 of the real property actions and 25 proceedings law made by section nine of this act shall not affect the 26 repeal of such subdivision and shall be deemed repealed therewith.
