§ 111. License to be confined to premises licensed. A license issued to any person, pursuant to chapter one hundred eighty of the laws of nineteen hundred thirty-three or this chapter, for any licensed premises shall not be transferable to any other person or to any other premises or to any other part of the building containing the licensed premises except in the discretion of the authority. It shall be available only to the person therein specified, and only for the premises licensed and no other except if authorized by the authority. Provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not be deemed to prohibit the issuance of a license under section seventy-six-b or seventy-six-c of this chapter. For the purposes of this section each railroad car and each vessel shall be deemed premises separately to be licensed.
