§ 8.09. Administration. The institute shall be administered by a director appointed by the trustees of the state university upon the recommendation of the chancellor of the state university.