§ 152. Business of subsidiary trust companies; limitation on powers. A subsidiary trust company shall have all of the powers of and be entitled to engage in the business of a trust company, provided that a subsidiary trust company shall not have the power to accept deposits.