§ 163. Restrictions as to place of business. The office of a private banker shall not be located in the same room with, or in a room connecting with, any bank, trust company, savings bank, or national bank.