§ 177. Official communications from superintendent. Every official communication, as defined in article two of this chapter, directed to any private banker, shall, if such private banker is a partnership, be submitted by the person receiving it to the members thereof present at their next meeting and duly noted on the records of such private banker.