§ 223. Establishment of branches or trust offices by means of an acquisition transaction. An out-of-state bank may maintain one or more branches or one or more trust offices located in this state that have been acquired by means of an acquisition transaction.