§ 377. When corporate existence begins. When the superintendent shall have approved the organization certificate and the proposed by-laws, and shall have issued his authorization certificate as provided in article two of this chapter, the corporate existence of the association shall begin.