§ 395. Alternative provisions relative to payment of interest to shareholders. Notwithstanding any provision of this chapter to the contrary the superintendent may adopt such rules or regulations as shall permit mutual savings and loan associations to pay interest on share accounts at the option of such association.