§ 401. Official communications to be submitted to directors and noted in minutes. Every official communication, as defined in article two of this chapter, shall be submitted, by the officer receiving it, to the board of directors at the next meeting of such board and noted in the minutes.