§ 512. Communications from department of financial services must be submitted to directors and noted in minutes. Every official communication as defined in article two of this chapter directed to an investment company or to any officer thereof shall be submitted, by the officer receiving it, to the board of directors at the next meeting of such board, and duly noted in the minutes of the meetings of such board.