§ 626. Judgments recovered shall not be liens. A lien shall not attach to any of the property or assets of any banking organization by reason of the entry of any judgment recovered against such banking organization after the superintendent has taken possession of its property and business and so long as such possession continues.