§ 75-k. Collection of penalties. The superintendent shall have the discretion to report to the attorney general any failure, after due notice, to make payments of penalties incurred under this article. The attorney general shall, thereupon, in the name of the superintendent, or of the people of the state, institute such actions or proceedings as the facts may warrant.