§ 9017. Place and time of meetings of the board; presence at. 1. Meetings of the board, regular or special, may be held at any place within or without this state, unless otherwise provided in the organization certificate or the by-laws.

2. Subject to articles six, ten, ten-B and eleven of this chapter, the time and place for holding meetings of the board may be fixed by or under the by-laws, or, if not so fixed, by the board.

3. When authorized by the organization certificate of incorporation or the by-laws, any one or more members of the board or any committee thereof may participate in a meeting of such board or committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment allowing all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.