§ 1612. Appellate division to continue authority. The appellate division may continue to delegate its authority under this article, except that its authority permanently to remove a marshal shall not be delegated.