§ 2104. References to predecessor courts. A reference in any general or special statute, law, local law, ordinance, resolution, rule, regulation or order to the city court of the city of New York or to the municipal court of the city of New York shall be deemed a reference to this court if such substituted reference be consistent with this act and with all other provisions of law applicable to this court.