§ 190.60 Grand jury; action to be taken.

After hearing and examining evidence as prescribed in section 190.55, a grand jury may:

1. Indict a person for an offense, as provided in section 190.65;

2. Direct the district attorney to file a prosecutor's information with a local criminal court, as provided in section 190.70;

3. Direct the district attorney to file a request for removal to the family court, as provided in section 190.71 of this article.

4. Dismiss the charge before it, as provided in section 190.75;

5. Submit a grand jury report, as provided in section 190.85.