§ 210.05 Indictment and superior court information exclusive methods of prosecution.

The only methods of prosecuting an offense in a superior court are by an indictment filed therewith by a grand jury or by a superior court information filed therewith by a district attorney.