§ 2211. Application for order; when motion made. A motion is an application for an order. A motion on notice is made when a notice of the motion or an order to show cause is served.