Rule 3105. Notice to party in default. When a party is in default for failure to appear, he shall not be entitled to notice or service of any copy required under this article.