Rule 4528. Weather conditions. Any record of the observations of the weather, taken under the direction of the United States weather bureau, is prima facie evidence of the facts stated.