§ 9803. Place of trial of actions and proceedings against villages. The place of trial of all actions and proceedings against a village or any of its officers or boards shall be the county in which the village is situated.