§ 83-d. Police advisory board meetings. The board will be convened by the president of the state civil service department, who will indicate the date, time and place of the first meeting. Subsequent meetings will be held in accordance with the majority determination of the board.