§ 96. Waiver of rights. No public officer nor any employee acting for a public officer shall require a candidate for employment to sign any document whereby such candidate for employment waives any right or rights accruing to him under this chapter.