§ 1006. Acceptance of law of the United States. The state of New York, through its legislative authority:

1. Accepts the provisions of any law of the United States making appropriation to be apportioned among the states for vocational rehabilitation of disabled persons, and accepts the provisions of any law of the United States making appropriation for apportionment or grants among the states for services for disabled persons.

2. Empowers and directs the board of regents of the university, hereby designated the New York state board for vocational education, to cooperate with such agency as the federal government shall designate to carry out the purposes of such law.

3. Appoints the commissioner of taxation and finance and the state comptroller as joint custodians of all money given to the state by the United States under the authority of such law, and such money shall be paid out in the manner provided by such act for the purposes therein specified.
