§ 1112. Courses of study and qualifications of teachers. The courses of instruction to accomplish the purposes of part two of this article are to be approved by the commissioner of education. The qualifications of the teachers, directors, assistants and supervisors employed by the county commission for special education must conform to the regulations of the regents of the university and the commissioner of education.