§ 1501-c. Voting by residents of certain facilities. Notwithstanding any provision of this title to the contrary, the provisions of section 8-407 of the election law shall apply to all elections conducted pursuant to this title by a school district. The board of elections of the city or county in which a school district is located shall provide for the implementation of the provisions of this section.