§ 1609. Annual report of trustees of certain joint districts. Where a common school district lies in two or more counties, its trustees shall file their annual report in the office of the district superintendent having jurisdiction over the schools of the town in which the principal schoolhouse of the district is situated.