§ 208-a. Scheduling of examinations. The department shall make a bona fide effort to schedule state mandated examinations on days other than days of religious observation. The commissioner may promulgate regulations to implement this section.