§ 2501. Application of article. This article shall apply to the school district of each city which according to the latest federal census has less than one hundred twenty-five thousand inhabitants.