§ 291. Custodian of funds. The state commissioner of taxation and finance and the state comptroller are hereby constituted and appointed the joint custodians of the moneys paid to the state of New York for vocational education, under the provisions of such act, and such moneys shall be paid out in the manner provided by such act for the purposes therein specified.