§ 293. Establishment of interstate library district. One or more incorporated public libraries of this state, by majority action of the board of trustees thereof, may enter into an agreement with one or more public library agencies in another state or states which have adopted the interstate library compact for the purpose of establishing and maintaining an interstate library district. For the purposes of this act, a cooperative library system established under article five of this chapter shall be deemed to be a public library.