§ 3008. Certification of teachers by local authorities. A district superintendent, a city superintendent of schools or such other authority of a city school district as may be designated by law may issue such certificate as may be authorized by law or by the regents general rules.