§ 3017. Individual liability of trustees. Any person employed in disregard of section three thousand eleven or of section three thousand sixteen shall have no claim for wages against the district, but may enforce the specific contract made against the trustees or board of education consenting to such employment as individuals.