§ 317. General education development exam. Notwithstanding any provision of law, no fee shall be established for admission to the general education development exam.