§ 3628. Excess expenditures. Unless otherwise provided in this part, any expenditure for transportation in excess of the allowable transportation expense as determined according to the provisions of this part shall not be used in determining the amount of any other form of state aid.